Gayle Jackson Revival Witnesses Over 2,000 Come To Christ

By C. S. WALKER
Pastor, First Assembly of God

As one of the co-operating pastors in the great Salvation-Divine Healing revival conducted by Rev. Gayle Jackson in Meridian, Mississippi, I would like to express my opinion of its greatness by mentioning only a few of my observations.

First, one of the accomplishments of great significance is the unified fellowship resulting of all the ministers of the Full Gospel churches of the city; all of whom dismissed their regular services in order that they and their members might attend every service of this great revival. There is now a fellowship among these ministers which was here-to-fore unknown.

I witnessed over two thousand make

Rev. O. L. Jagers, who has resumed his ministry in Dallas, Texas. During the summer he has held only short meetings and has spent much of his time writing on his new book, "Everlasting Spiritual and Physical Health," which is soon to come off the press. God has given him a special ministry of miracles in which creative action often takes place. Many thousands have been saved and have received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost in these campaigns.

East Stirred By Impact of Osborn-Lindsay Healing Campaign

The City of Reading, Pennsylvania, has received a Divine visitation of blessing and power that has never been equalled, so say many of the ministers of this community and vicinity. Approximately 2700 people answered a strictly salvation altar call, and multiplied hundreds were healed of diseases and afflictions of every kind. Night after night the great tent seating over two thousand was crowded, with between five hundred and two thousand standing about it during each service.

The meeting began rather inauspiciously and with no fanfare. Circumstances were such that it had been impossible to go before hand and properly organize the campaign. Only two or three churches at the start were backing it. Brother George Folk, chairman of the local committee, had succeeded in securing a large tent 210 feet long, and he with Rev. Henry Stoppe of Jamaica had put forth much effort in getting the tent erected. The campaign, starting on a Sunday, began with a rather small attendance. Nevertheless, with miracles occurring from the first night, the crowds began to come, and soon more were there than could be accommodated. Hundreds of people and sometimes thousands stood for hours about the tent. Another thing that might be mentioned was that this was one of the first, if not the first, of the great healing campaigns on a large scale held in the East. Yet it was not long before people began coming regularly from distances of over a hundred miles. All denominations came and were blessed, and many were healed.

Special Notice Concerning World-Wide Revival Magazine

Evangelist Dale Hanson now has two great tents, seating 2,000 people each, which he proposes to keep going in great healing meetings. Because of the great responsibility in carrying on this work, it has been arranged by mutual consent between him and the editors of THE VOICE OF HEALING to represent his work in the pages of this magazine. Consequently, Brother Hanson's magazine, "WORLD-WIDE REVIVAL," WILL BE DISCONTINUED.

their way to the prayer tents under such mighty conviction of sin, until many of them were gloriously saved even before they knelt to pray, as the conviction was accomplished by Faith, resulting from the simple but pungent Gospel messages of the evangelist.

There is no way to determine the number of miracles and healings that occurred, but conservative estimate places the number in the thousands, who were delivered from diseases of almost every description, including cancers, goiters, heart disease and sugar diabetes. Blind eyes were opened, the deaf heard, the dumb spoke, crossed eyes were made straight, the lame walked and many other miracles were wrought.

One of the greatest evidences of the hunger for God which possessed the great throngs, who attended night after night, was that the heavy downpour of rain which fell almost every night did not stop them. I witnessed scores wade through water over their shoe tops (that had run under the tent and stood in some places as much as six inches deep) making their way to the front of the tent to find Christ as their Saviour.

I think all of the Full Gospel churches of the city have already witnessed clear evidence of a mighty Spiritual awakening, that we hope will continue and grow in intensity until Jesus comes.

Harvey MacAllister in Great Missionary Tour in Latin-America

By HARVEY McALLISTER

During 1946, I was in Jamaica for ten weeks, during which period I witnessed upwards of 1,500 unsaved persons kneeling at altars and in prayer rooms and taking Christ as Saviour. In many of the meetings we found it necessary to form healing lines four abreast.

While in the West Indies I had the inward conviction that the Lord would have me to give a definite ministry to Mexico. On returning home, I found a letter on my desk from the pastor of the largest church in Mexico City which invited me to come to that city for a ministry in which healing would be the outstanding feature.

We had two wonderful weeks in Mexico City, with nightly congregations of around 1500 people. Seldom a night meeting but at least fifty came for salvation and sometimes as many as a hundred and fifty. Each night there would be hundreds in the healing line.

After ministering in a number of other cities in Mexico, I took a plane for British Honduras to fill an engagement as speaker at the Third Annual Convention of the Assemblies of God in British Honduras. Night meetings were conducted in a large hall seating about 600, with often many standing. Then for the first time, as far as is known, on British Honduras soil, in the early 5:30 A. M. meetings, people received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost—14 of them.

The Voice of Healing Magazine Now Official Organ of Many of The Great Healing Campaigns

By THE EDITOR

Almost daily we receive requests from worthy evangelists and workers for space in THE VOICE OF HEALING. It is our desire to as fully and fairly represent the field as is possible. In the providence of God some of these campaigns, because of their scope, draw thousands of people not only from the locale of the meeting but from hundreds of miles in every direction. From these services others draw inspiration to go forth and labor in a ministry of deliverance in their respective fields. Naturally THE VOICE OF HEALING must report more fully those meetings which are setting the pattern of this last-day revival. We are the more disposed to publicize those who do not have an inordinate ambition to magnify themselves, but wish to glorify Christ, and who are seeking to encourage other ministers in this ministry of deliverance. Again, we are especially interested in those who are not seeking to amass money for personal comfort, but will consider themselves stewards before God to assist in the promulgation of this message of deliverance to the untouched mission fields.

Although editor of THE VOICE OF HEALING, we are hopeful that we have not used our position to unproportionately publicize meetings in which we have been associated. We are not interested alone in what God is doing for us, but rather in what God is doing over the entire field, without respect to church walls or denominational barriers. We are thankful, however, for the great meetings in which we have been associated. Some idea of the scope of the recent Osborn-Lindsay campaign at Reading may be understood from the fact that including over 1300 subscriptions received for THE VOICE OF HEALING, some 26,000 copies of the magazine may be said to be used as a result of this one campaign.

Foreign Nations Being Stirred

"LITTLE DAVID" campaign in Royal Albert Hall, London. These meetings, with the assistance of Rev. Hoekstra and Raymond T. Richey, are being organized on a union basis, and whole cities are being stirred by them.

Raymond G. Hoekstra And Little David in England and Europe

Fire has again fallen on London. Not the fire bombs of enemy planes, but the Fire from Heaven which God has promised to believers.

Many hundreds have been converted, and other hundreds received the prayer of faith that heals the sick!

Newspapers throughout Britain and London published reports, with names and addresses of persons who testified to miracles of healing.

On Sunday, August 14th, the Royal Albert Hall, in London, was filled, as seven thousand persons listened intently to the testimony of Little David. Simply and earnestly he testified that when he was nine years of age his spirit was taken up for five hours into heaven. "Jesus said, 'David, if you will preach what I command you to preach, thousands will be converted, and many miraculously healed. The blind will see. The deaf will hear. The lame will walk.' That promise has never failed."

From London Rev. Hoekstra and Little David went by plane to Amsterdam, Holland; Brussels, Belgium, and then on to Paris. In Paris, God sent another revival.

The Palace de la Mutualite was filled to overflowing. In a single service they prayed for one thousand persons. Many miracles of healing were witnessed. The common people of Paris had great faith.

Under the able leadership of Pastor Fauvell, the work in France is forging forward.

On September 17th, Little David and Rev. Hoekstra will open a major revival campaign in the Mosque Auditorium, Richmond, Virginia. This will be their first revival back in the United States.

Latest Word From Dale Hanson Party

We have just concluded a successful revival in our big tent at Ada, Oklahoma, where we continued four weeks under the sponsorship of Presbyter Floyd L. Poag, of the Assemblies of God. We appreciated the fine cooperation of the churches and pastors who closed their services during the entire revival.

There were many people who testified of definite healings during the campaign, as well as several miracle healings. One man who had a cancer on his face for eight years, and suffered continually with pain and discomfort, was completely healed in several days. A woman with a broken ankle of many months standing was instantly delivered. She hadn't been able to even wiggle her toes, but she immediately received her healing, and walked down the aisle without her crutches. People were even healed while outside the tent in their cars as God's power swept through the audience.

There were numbers saved at the altar and also filled with the Holy Ghost, and the people of Ada and surrounding communities have been stirred to contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

Many came from out of state who read the reports in THE VOICE OF HEALING magazine. It seems your magazine must reach into every city and state, as even in Canada and Newfoundland the people told us of the benefits which they are receiving from reading it.

This was our first revival in our big 2,000-seat tent, which we obtained after our revivals in Canada. I have an excellent revival group with me in the big tent. However, Barbara, my wife, will soon join the party again. Barbara is still in the St. Michael's Hospital in Texarkana, Arkansas, where she has been for ten weeks, after breaking her back in several places and nine ribs in the accident. We surely appreciate the earnest prayers of the thousands who have contended for her healing.

Notice to Those Who Attend Healing Campaigns From A Distance

In general, those coming from a distance to the healing campaigns should come prepared to stay several days, or until their turn to be prayed for. This time is not lost, for the opportunity to hear the Word of God and to receive the great inspiration of the meetings, is vitally important in the receiving of healing.

(The story of Mrs. M. B. Woodworth-Etter is inspiring and timely for our present hour. God took His handmaiden through a time of testing and sorrow while she was prepared for the great work she was to do. In few ministries has the power of the Spirit been more obviously manifested. Soon after she was called to preach, the Lord led her into a mighty healing ministry, and her meetings are still remembered by those old enough to recall the first two decades of this century. Her book, "MARVELS AND MIRACLES," enjoyed a wide circulation, but so far as we know at the present time, it is no longer published, and is not obtainable at any bookstore.)

I WAS BORN in New Lisbon, Ohio, July 1, 1844. My mother and father joined the Disciple Church one year before my father's death, which occurred in July, 1855. The death of my father was the first great sorrow of my life. He had gone to harvest in usual health. I will never forget when he was brought home, cold in death. Some neighbor children and I were out watching a terrible storm raging, when we saw two strangers approaching the house. They came to bring the sad intelligence of what had happened. It was a terrible blow to our young hearts to see our father carried into the house cold and stiff in death. Father died of sunstroke; he was sick only a few hours, and died praying for the whole family.

Conversion

At the age of thirteen I attended a meeting of the Disciple Church. When I heard the story of the Cross my heart was filled with the love of Jesus, but I did not get converted then. The next day, as they took me down to the creek to baptize me, there was a great crowd around. It scared me a little; so I asked the Lord to save me fully, trusting myself into His hands. While going through the water, a light came over me, and I was converted.

Soon after I was converted, I heard the voice of Jesus calling me to go out into the highways and hedges and gather in lost sheep. I had never heard of women working in public except as missionaries, so I could see no opening. A few years after this I married Mr. Woodworth.

Early Sorrows and Trials

A number of years passed when the angel of death came again to our home and took away our baby, Freddie, and at the same time I lay for weeks between life and death. In all this I could see the Hand of the loving Father calling me to leave all and follow Him. About this time, our little daughter, Georgie, was converted. She was about seven years old, and was a great comfort to me. Many happy times we enjoyed talking together of the beautiful home over the river, where her brother had gone. I did not think she would leave me so soon to join their ranks and raise her voice with theirs in singing salvation to our God. She was taken sick with scrofula, and lingered about eight months. For weeks before she died, her face was all lighted up with the glory of God. She was willing to go and be with Jesus, but it seemed hard for her to leave me. She said, "Mama, I cannot die unless you promise to meet me in heaven." I said, "Georgie, by the Grace of God I will meet you in heaven." She said, "Now I am ready; I know you will come, mama; I shall always be looking for you."

Three weeks before her death, little Gertie was born. She was the picture of Georgie and seemed to have her sweet disposition. I thought as she grew older she would take her place; but the precious bud was not permitted to bloom in this world of sin. At the age of four months, the angels bore her away where the flowers never fade nor die, there to join her sister and brothers. I could say with David, they cannot come back to me, but I will go to them.

Visions of Heaven

From the time of these sad occurrences which have just been narrated, my health was very poor, and many times I was brought near the brink of the grave. Every one who saw me thought I was going to die. But the work of the Lord was calling me, and when I seemed to be hovering between life and death, I would have glorious visions.

At one time, I was praying for the salvation of sinners, and the Saviour appeared on the Cross by me, and talked with me; I laid my hand on His mangled body, and looked up in His smiling face. Another time, as I was meditating upon the love of God in giving His only Son to die for sinners, and of the beautiful home He was preparing for those that love Him, I seemed to float away, and was set down in the Beautiful City. Oh, the glorious sight that met my view, can never be expressed by mortal tongue! Heaven is located. It is a real city. Its inhabitants are real and not imaginary. If mothers could see their children as I saw them, in all their shining glory, they would never weep for them, but would leave all and follow Jesus. They would let nothing keep them from meeting their children in heaven. I can never think of children as being in the grave. Oh, no! The loved form that we laid away in the cold grave is nothing but the casket that contained the jewel which is now shining in the Saviour's Crown.

All these years God had been preparing me—for I was not willing. I felt like a worm in His sight. It seemed impossible for me to undertake the work of salvation of souls; but the time had come to promise or die. I promised God that if He would restore my health, and prepare me, and show me the work, I would try to do it; I began to get better immediately.

The Perishing of Multitudes

We moved to a Friends settlement. They had glorious meetings. God seemed to say to me, "I brought you here to go to work." Now the struggle commenced. I was timid and bound with chains in a man-fearing spirit. When I arose to testify I trembled like a leaf, and I began to make excuses—"O, God, send someone else." Then the Lord in a vision caused me to see the bottomless pit, open in all its horrors and woe. There was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth. It was surrounded by a great multitude of people who seemed unconscious of their danger, and without a moment's warning they would tumble into this awful place. I was above the people on a narrow plank-walk, which wound up toward heaven; and I was exhorting and pleading with the people to come upon that plank and escape that awful place. Several started. There was a beautiful bright light above me, and I was encouraging them to follow the light and they would go straight to heaven. The Lord was showing in many ways that I must go and perform the work He had for me to do.

I still delayed, although several ministers whom I had never seen before, told me at different times that God was calling me to the ministry, and that I would have to go. Then my little Willie took sick, and in a few days he was in heaven. He died very happy, but this sad bereavement nearly took my life. When alone, I missed my darling so much that I wept as though my heart would break. Lizzie, our oldest child, aged sixteen, was all we had left of six sweet children.

In all these trials God was preparing me and opening the way for the great battle against the enemy of souls: and now the great desire of my heart was to work for Jesus. The glory of the Lord came upon me like a cloud, and I seemed to be carried away hundreds of miles and set down in a field of wheat, where the sheaves were falling all around me. I was filled with zeal and power and felt as if I could stand before the whole world and plead with dying sinners. Then Satan would come and I would think of my weakness and say, "No, of course I cannot do it." Again I would be in darkness and despair.

Baptism of the Holy Ghost

Then I asked God to give me the power He gave the Galilean fishermen—to anoint me for service. I came like a child asking for bread. I looked for it; God did not disappoint me. The power of the Holy Ghost came down as a bright cloud. It was brighter than the sun. I was covered and wrapped up in it. My body was as light as the air. It seemed that heaven came down. I was baptized with the Holy Ghost, and fire, and power, which has never left me. It is through the Lord Jesus Christ, and by this power that I have stood before hundreds of thousands of men and women, proclaiming the unsearchable riches of Christ.

God Used Women

As I continued to read my Bible I saw that in all ages of the world, the Lord raised up of His own choosing, men, women and children—Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, Anna, Phoebe, the Marys and the sisters who were coworkers with Paul in the Gospel. The more I investigated, the more I found to condemn me. By the prophet Joel we learn that one special feature of the Gospel Dispensation shall be "Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions; and also upon the servants and upon the handmaidens in those days will I pour out my spirit." It seems by the Prophet Joel that the last days were to be particularly conspicuous for this kind of prophesying.

The First Meeting

The first meeting that I undertook to hold was in a little town where we had lived some years before, right among my husband's people. It was a cross for me to talk to those people; but when I began to talk upon the subject "Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live," the man-fearing spirit left me, and the words came to me faster than I could give them utterance. We continued the meeting for a few days and people were converted all through the neighborhood. The power came on me as it did when I received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. Let me say for the encouragement of those who are starting in the work of the Lord, God has promised to be with us always, even to the end. It is "not by might . . . but by My Spirit, saith the Lord." God will give us the victory every time, but we must claim the victory by faith, before the walls fall. (Josh. 6:20.)

Gods' Power Manifested in Blessing and Judgment

After many invitations, we went to Hartford City about the first of January, 1885, to the Methodist Church. The church was cold and formal and I knew it would take a wonderful display of God's power to convince the people: so I prayed for God to display His power that the sinner might know that God lives. The Lord answered our prayers in a remarkable manner. People fell under the power of God. Many wept; some shouted and divers operations of the Spirit were seen. Men, women and children were struck down in their homes, in their places of business, and lay as dead. They had wonderful visions, and arose converted, giving glory to God. The fear of God fell upon the city.

One man was mocking a woman, of whose body God had taken control. She was preaching with gestures. When in the mocking attitude God struck him dumb. He became rigid and remained with his hands up, and his mouth drawn in a mocking way for five hours—a gazing-stock for all the house. The fear of God fell on all. They saw it was a fearful thing to mock God or make fun of His work. The Cincinnati Enquirer sent a reporter to write up the meetings and report daily. Every day newsboys could be heard crying out, "All about the Woodworth Revival."

Ministry of Healing

The Lord showed me while in Columbia City, Indiana, in the spring of 1885, that I had the gifts of healing and of laying on hands for the recovery of the sick. At first I could not understand that it was the Spirit of God that was leading me. For three nights when I was almost dead for rest, I lay awake. I thought that if I should preach divine healing I would neglect the salvation of souls. The Lord showed me that He would take care of the work. When I made the promise I would pray for the sick if He would send them in, I had perfect rest of mind and soul. From this time on God began to lead me to teach divine healing and pray for the sick. In the years that have intervened since, God has healed thousands of all manner of diseases and thousands have been brought to Christ by seeing the sick healed.

The Spirit of Prophecy—San Francisco Earthquake

While holding meetings in California, the Lord showed me that a great destruction and an earthquake was coming. Soon after, the papers were ablaze with pictures of the awful earthquake and holocaust in San Francisco, and the surrounding country. I had told them God always sends mercy, and that they would be visited next with destruction and judgment. The earthquake soon followed and the fear of God came on those who remembered the prophecy. Both prophecies were fulfilled in a week, and I lived to walk over the ruins.

Vision of the Coming of Christ

On March 24, 1904, when I fell under the operation of the power of God, while praying for the healing of the last one at the altar, I saw the Saviour on the Cross, and sinners coming to Him. I saw steps leading across the pearly gates of heaven. All who plunged into the fountain were at once placed upon the steps. Each one carried a light that grew brighter as they went higher. There was not a spot or a defilement on their robes. Each one had a body-guard of angels of God escorting them on the upward journey. At the top of the steps were pearly gates, where the heavenly hosts waited to welcome the Pilgrims of earth.

I also saw the world in great darkness, and that the saints were few. "Many are called but few are chosen." Many were under conviction, but trusted to water baptism, to confirmation, to church membership; but unless they are carrying the light of God they are worse than an open sinner.

I saw preparation in heaven and earth for the Soon Coming of Christ. Heaven seemed to be in a commotion. The Lord was marshaling His hosts; getting the horses and chariots ready. The armies of heaven were moving, the gates were open. An angel came out of the gates blowing a great trumpet, the Saviour taking the lead, with all the glory of heaven, shouting to the saints in a loud voice, that awakened the dead.

The Lord showed me He was judging His saints, separating the wheat from the tares; the household of faith was getting its portion of meat in this, God's due season. The angel was sealing the last ones of the members of the Bride, with the seal of the living God. They were a little flock and the last one would soon be sealed, then the Lord would come in a cloud of glory to take His bride to the Marriage Feast, or Supper.

God help all who read this vision to take this warning and repent, for the Judgment of God is at hand.

Test Case of Healing of Cripple With Leg Three Inches Short

(In our effort to encourage faith and to stop the mouth of unbelief, THE VOICE OF HEALING is carrying test cases of miracles of healing, which are so outstanding of their kind, that no further argument can be made by those who claim the days of miracles have ceased. To show the universality of this great move of God, we choose various cases from the different men who possess the sign-gift ministry. The testimony below is that of Mrs. Harold Oman, of Manhattan, Montana, who was healed under the ministry of Rev. John F. Hauck. She was born a cripple, and at the time just before her healing on April 1, her left leg was at least three inches shorter than the right.)

Dear Brother Lindsay:

It is with great joy and victory of heart that I write you my testimony. I am 31 years old, and was born a cripple. For the last 23 years I have had to wear a two-inch extended heel, and a one-inch extended sole, on my left foot because of the extreme difference in the length of my legs. When tired or carrying a medium load, my left side would droop some three or four inches. At times I wondered how long I could keep on my feet.

My childhood was filled with memories of suffering. Being born a cripple, my parents spared nothing to get me well. Doctors differed in the cause of the condition. Surgery was performed in an attempt to discover what was wrong. Extreme exercises were ordered, but I only grew worse. The outcome was that the two bones pulverized by rubbing together. A surgical operation removed the fragments and much of the bone because of the worn condition. Further surgery helped me a little, but left my leg in a very stiffened condition. Beside all this, there was pain and deep-seated trouble in my spine and brain.

At this time I was afraid to go to a doctor further, and not even telling my mother, I called Evangelist John Hauck, who prayed for me. I had confidence and faith that God had heard his prayer.

On April 1, 1949, when I awakened from sleep, I had a stiff neck, and a little to the right of the back of my neck, a lump the size of an egg, deep inside. On the afternoon of the second, both legs ached and hurt, and also my entire spine, head and arms. I went to the bedroom in great suffering. I called my children in, thinking I was being paralyzed. My little boy, six years of age, came in and prayed for his mama and then ran out to play.

I tried to get up in the Name of the Lord. With great difficulty I picked up my Bible, went into the kitchen, crumpled into a chair, opened the Bible, reading with great difficulty, "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain." The Holy

Mrs. Harold Oman of Manhattan, Mont., before her healing. Here she wears her extended last which was worn to balance her body. She no longer wears it.

Spirit then came upon me, and I began to sing in the Spirit and dance and leap for joy. I felt as though I were going to be translated. The children came running in, and they weren't frightened, but with tears streaming down their faces they began to praise God. The Lord witnessed to my little son, David, to help me get my old high extended boot off. When it came off, the lump seemed to split and go out each foot after which David cried out, "Mama, you're walking like a human being!" This truly thrilled my soul as God had witnessed first to him. Then a voice spoke, "I'm healing your leg." I said, "Never let me doubt it, Lord." I ran to the field dancing, to tell my husband and brother-in-law, and the next day I had to go to the church in house slippers as all my shoes were extended ones. I could no longer wear them.

A doctor's report, August 2, and an X-ray shows my hips straight across from one another instead of at an angle. My blood and health are such as I never had in all my life before. I walk flat on my feet with shoulders level, good posture and perfect spine. Before without my extension, my knee would go out of place. I can do many things I could never do before. I can now touch the floor with Evangelist Osborn's distinctive ability to preach faith was one of the highlights of the campaign. Few ministers have ever possessed the ability to give such a clear-cut presentation of this subject. This with the demonstration of the healing of the deaf, dumb, blind and others, as Brother Osborn ministered each night, established faith in God to such a degree that the most amazing deliverances took place. Sister Osborn also assisted her husband very ably in the prayer line. On occasions when she prayed for the sick there were marked deliverances, especially with those that were cross-eyed. It appears that the immediate deliverance of cross-eyed persons has a most remarkable effect upon the audience.

An essential part of the campaign were the afternoon preparatory meetings, in which as many as a thousand persons would be sometimes present on week days. These were conducted by Gordon Lindsay, editor of The Voice of Healing. The teachings of repentance, faith and right living, as preparation for healing was a feature of these afternoon meetings. Brother Lindsay also prayed for certain of the sick in the afternoon, with outstanding miracles occurring.

On the last Sunday service, Evangelist Osborn introduced a novel and remarkable feature of the campaign. God had shown our brother a great truth of this ministry—that all God's ministers should have some share in it. Nine prayer lines were formed and handled by the local cooperating ministers. To the astonishment and joy of these men, they found that as a result of the campaign, faith had been inspired in their heart to believe for the same things that they had been witness-

Creative Miracle—New Ear Drum

My left ear drum was totally destroyed. I went to an ear specialist who informed me that there was no ear drum in my left ear. I came to the healing campaign and Brother Osborn prayed for me and I instantly heard Mrs. Osborn's small Elgin wrist watch with that ear perfectly. I can truly say that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

The campaign closed with a rousing testimony service on Monday night. When those who were healed were asked to stand, a line formed of those who wished to testify clear to the rear of the tent. Mute witness to the great miracles that had taken place were the pile of crutches, canes, ear phones, trusses, glasses and what-not which had been discarded and left behind by those that were healed.

"The Appearance of Christ To Me"

Why I Preach In Sackcloth

BY EVANGELIST LOUISE NANKIVELL

IT WAS at the close of the General Council in Minneapolis, September, 1941, that I went into a complete physical collapse—unable to sit up, to hold up my head, to eat any food whatever, or to sleep. Although I had collapsed once before, about six weeks prior to this, my condition had now become so serious that I was taken to a hospital with what the hospital reported as "in labored breathing"—apparently dying. My body was literally gone to pieces. My blood was "gone." The body chemistry had failed. The internal organs were in a condition spoken of by physicians as being "burned out." It was not just one organ, it was all of them.

Body Prematurely Old

My husband's brother in St. Paul sent an outside doctor in to the hospital to look me over. After an examination, he made some brief explanations about my state to nurses at my bedside. Then he turned to me, and in a gruff, harsh voice, admonished, "You're too young, too young to be in this condition. You have no business being this way."

Strangely enough, I was in the same condition as an aunt of mine, a dear, precious saint of God, in Chicago, my home city. But she was old, up in her eighties, and her body was worn out; her organs would never function again. The doctors had been carrying her along for a while by artificial aids they were giving her. When she passed away, the same things which had been done for her were being done for me.

Given Up to Die

I realized that I was dying, and that statement, "You're too young to be in this condition," rose up before me, and created a bitter spirit toward the Lord within my heart.

No, I wasn't afraid to die. I can honestly say that. But I thought of the years of service I could still have for the Master, and I didn't want to go.

Nothing was prescribed by the doctor, and no attempt was made by the hospital to give me food or drink. In fact, nothing was done for me, except that shots were given in the arm to keep me quiet at night, and a nurse watched me constantly.

I sank very low and my suffering was unbearable. Oh, how could a mortal endure such torture, such torment in body and survive! Would I ever live through another night? It would never do to go into the presence of the Lord with a bitter soul. And so, expecting momentarily that my spirit would take its flight, I yielded myself into the hands of the Lord, and the Lord made me willing to die.

My husband had been sent for, and stayed with me after I rallied until it was safe to take me down to Chicago, as I was too ill to get home alone.

Evangelist Nankivell wears this sackcloth garment when preaching in accordance with a vow made to God during a serious illness.

Much prayer was offered for my healing, but no change came in my physical condition. From the first, I had daily been given as large a quantity of sleeping drugs as could be safely administered, but after a year and a half had elapsed, I was still too ill to sleep most of the time, even with drugs, and was still being "carried along" on artificial aids that were being given. In fact, at this time, in desperate attempts of faith for healing, when these aids were laid aside, I was unable to sit up, to eat any food whatever, or to even drink milk.

There was a burning within my body, and as the doctors were silent on the cause of my trouble, we thought I had a cancer.

Feeling that I might just as well be facing the facts, I asked the physician point blank one day, "Do I have a cancer?" "No," came the prompt reply. "If you did, you would have been in a box three months." I questioned further as to why I did not get better. It was then he told me I was in the same condition as another patient he was treating, who was suffering from pernicious anemia and could not last much longer. Pernicious anemia with complications! An incurable condition! A fatal disease!

Resolution to Seek God

I began to do some serious thinking. If the time of my earthly sojourn was limited, a good way to go would be praying. So despite unbearable suffering, I offered myself to my blessed Lord in hours of constant prayer for days and weeks. But the heavens were as brass. There seemed to be no ray of light.

Approximately one year and nine months had gone by since I had become seriously ill and I was in the same dreadful condition.

The Vow to Preach in Sackcloth

In desperation, one day I humbled myself repeatedly before the Lord, and made a secret vow to preach in sackcloth, if He would bring me out of my living death.

"Lord, I've preached your Gospel for years. You've been faithful in healing many sick in the meetings. I know I'm unworthy, but surely, after seeing many healed by Your Hand in my own ministry, it wouldn't be that I cannot be healed, that I shall have to go to an untimely grave. Oh, Lord, if you will bring me out of my hopeless condition in a short time by some supernatural act of Divine intervention, so that all can see that YOU have done this, I'll go out and preach your Gospel dressed in sackcloth."

Two or three weeks went by and a Saturday night came. After retiring, I talked with the Saviour. "Lord, all I am, all I have, my life, my health is in Your hands; I rest it all with You."

Vision of the Lord Jesus

That same night, or rather in the hours of Palm Sunday morning, our Lord Jesus appeared to me in a "vision of the night." I thought I was praying. The next thing, I thought I had gone into a trance. This "going into a trance" was as definite a transition as though I had gone through a door, stepped from one room into another. I seemed to be saying to myself, Truman Announces Russia Has The Atomic Bomb!

President Truman, as this issue goes to press, states that Russia now has the atomic bomb, thus startling America's leading scientists. Readers will note that in recent issues THE VOICE OF HEALING has mentioned that Russia already has the atomic bomb. Now the news is confirmed. Because the explosion of the A-bomb is so terrific, it cannot be hidden. No doubt, floating clouds of radioactive rays have revealed it. Time is shorter than most people think!

Ambassador Hurley Reveals U. S. Responsible For Fall of China

Patrick Hurley, former ambassador to China, makes some startling statements concerning U. S. responsibility for the fall of China. Chiang Kai-shek, though he has made mistakes, nevertheless has been the bulwark against Communism. His brilliant wife has been a Christian for many years, and had won Chiang to Christianity. Here was the man to aid against the Red tide that was sweeping down through North China. But through a tragic error the great leader was "sold down the river at Yalta," so says Mr. Hurley.

America's policy has always been to keep China free, and to stand against any foreign power taking territory from her. But at the Yalta Conference, when Roosevelt was a sick man, Stalin, with Oriental cunning, managed to dominate the conference and got the President to agree to give Russia rights in China. By this secret agreement, Russia got the preeminent right to the port of Dairen, the naval base at Port Arthur, a right to the Chinese Manchurian railways. In all this, Chinese leadership was not considered. Hurley goes on to say that "the Yalta secret agreement is a blueprint for Communist conquest of China." Alas, so it has turned out to be. Communism has swept down from the North and enveloped China. China is lost.

Americans Warned—Get Out of China

As a result of these developments, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, on July 27, urged all Americans to get out of the country. He admits that under existing conditions the United States government is unable to provide protection. There is grave danger, he says, that any moment the Communists may treat as hostages 4,000 Americans that have failed to leave the country. Already, incidents have occurred of this nature and Americans have been held captive without food or water. Lawless Communism cares nothing about international law. Even Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart has met with innumerable red tape obstacles in trying to leave Nanking. Thus the great missionary enterprise representing tens of millions of dollars is in peril. Cannot Christian America see the handwriting on the wall? It is time to turn from long-range missionary endeavor involving the training of medical missionaries, and to pray that men will get the ministry of deliverance to reach the ten thousands for Christ, ere the door of opportunity is forever shut.

European Union

The August 15 issue of TIME describes the new development now going on in Europe, which may be of the greatest prophetic significance. First, it mentions the city of Strasbourg, in which delegates from ten nations have gathered for the purpose of considering an European union. This article takes note of the fact that Strasbourg was an important city in the old Holy Roman Empire and then mentions that the Holy Roman Empire was "the first and only European union." The article goes on to say that "this week Strasbourg became the center of a great, if still uncertain move, to revive the dream of European union." Next it mentions that TEN NATIONS (Belgium, Denmark, France, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, United Kingdom) have assembled delegates for this first session of the Council of Europe. We believe that this move is of great significance and should be watched closely.

The state of Massachusetts decided to make a survey and find out if the taxes received from liquor paid the expense of it. They learned that in one year the total tangible cost of alcoholism to their state was $61,000,000.00, including crime costs, mental cases, and relief to dependents due to inebriety. Against this there was an offset of $12,139,266.00 received by the commonwealth from liquor taxes. Legalizing liquor cost this one state $47,860,000.00 in one year alone.

Drinking habits are not limited to adulthood. Surveys show that 62 per cent of American youths between 16 and 24 are drinkers. There are 1,350,000 girls who are selling whiskey and beer in taverns and bars. This means that the barmaids outnumber our coeds.

Surely lawlessness is one of the most shocking, breath-taking and appalling signs of this age. It is a God-given sign of the consummating age.

Questions and Answers

QUESTION: In your article in Questions and Answers column some time ago, you showed that Paul's Thorn in the Flesh was not sickness. However, many preachers contend that Paul was almost blind. Scofield of the Scofield Bible says, "It has been conjectured that Paul's 'thorn in the flesh' was chronic ophthalmia (a serious eye affliction) inducing bodily weakness, and a repulsive appearance." Can you give any further proof that Paul's thorn in the flesh was not an affliction of the eyes?

ANSWER: What more proof is needed than what has been given? Even Scofield said concerning the above supposition, "This cannot be positively known, and the reserve of the Scripture is a sure mark of inspiration as its revelations. Paul's particular thorn is not described that his consolations may avail for all to whom any thorn is given." (Scofield Bible.)

But if any further proof were needed that Paul was not blind or near blind, it is the fact that the Lord healed him! The Lord directed Ananias to the place where Paul was praying, that he should lay his hands upon Paul that he might receive his sight. (Acts 9:17.) This was confirmed in a vision (Vs. 12). And the Scripture records that he did receive his sight. (Vs. 18.) Surely this plain statement of the Scripture, should end forever further false surmises about Paul's blindness.

Nor was Paul a chronic sick person. Sick people couldn't perform the labors that Paul accomplished. He himself claimed that he had "labored more abundantly" than all the other apostles. (I Cor. 15:10.) Certainly this is not the testimony of a sick person. Just before speaking of his "thorn" in II Cor. 12:7, Paul lists his persecutions and reproaches and tribulations in 11:23-27, but not once does he mention sickness. The "thorn in the flesh" was the persecutions of wicked men as Numbers 33:55, Judges 2:3 and other places, surely show the meaning of such to be.

A Danger Spot

A new danger spot has arisen in Europe—Yugoslavia. Tito, the Communist dictator of this country, who aided the spread of Communism through the Balkans, has had a falling out with Stalin, and indeed now defies him. Suppose Russia invades Yugoslavia. Would the Western Allies fight against this expansion westward? The assassination of the Austrian Archduke in Serbia (now Yugoslavia) was the spark that started World War I. Will this area be the immediate cause of the beginning of another great conflagration?

Notice Foreign Lands and Latin America

The Osborn-Lindsay party and possibly Rev. Wilbur Ogilvie are contemplating going this winter to Jamaica, Cuba, West Indies, Mexico and other Latin-American countries in a great missionary tour to bring the message of deliverance. We are receiving many calls both from the countries mentioned and many other foreign lands. Others interested may write GORDON LINDSAY, BOX 4097, SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA. Please state building facilities available and local regulations that might be involved in proclaiming this ministry of deliverance.

Thelma Nickel at Elkhart, Indiana

The sick came for miles to be prayed for in Elkhart, some as far as 200 miles. Many were the testimonies of deliverance. One sister, after being prayed for, went down the street shouting. She testified that for three days she was walking on air. She had a limb that was shorter than the other. During the time of rejoicing, her limb lengthened to its normal length. Many others were healed and saved.

Thank God for THE VOICE OF HEALING and its message. I would like to see it in every home in the land.

Marvels and Miracles

Her Vision of the Unity of the Church

It was marvelous in our meetings how the Lord brought the different missions together. I never permit doctrinal points or any "isms" or antagonistic points to be aired or brought up in the meetings; nothing but Christ and Him crucified, and the Resurrection. They soon understand and get their eyes off one another, and forget their ideas and differences and begin to love one another and soon feel the need of getting deeper in God.

Many received gifts and special calls. One night the conviction was so deep that scores of believers came out from the audience requesting the laying on of hands and prayer. There were too many to be prayed for individually. So the Lord showed me if they would all come and stand before the pulpit, He would bless them; I told hungry souls to gather around and give themselves to God for everything and anything; we would stand and sprinkle the Blood of the Everlasting Covenant on them, and then God would pour out His Spirit and give them blessings and gifts. I asked several of the most God-filled ministers to stand with me in faith and prayer! Oh, it was wonderful how the cloud of glory and power came down! Many staggered and fell; the power swept all over the house. This was something new; no one had ever seen anything like it. Many were saved and healed.
