Dear Brother Nunn:

I just received your book, "The Battle in the Heavens", and have read it thru several times.

Truly, it was an answer to prayer, for the devil has been tormenting my mind until I just felt I would lose my sense of balance anytime. But thank God, your book helped me and I am learning to use the word to defeat him.

R. J.
Decatur, Arkansas

Dear Brother Nunn:

I can say I never heard a more wonderful sermon than the one you delivered at the last Friday afternoon service in Canton, Ohio. Maybe I was "in tune" that afternoon. One must be in tune to get the fullness of a sermon.

You said, after the sermon, that if anyone wanted to be healed to come up. I remember, one woman said she wanted to be delivered from tobacco.

I chewed and drank. It was the first thing in the morning and the last thing at night. I said, "I do not need to go up. God will remove the desire of tobacco and drink." I bowed my head, and if I ever prayed sincerely, I prayed with all that was in me.

Praise God, He did just that. I haven't the least bit of a desire now. It is as if I had never tasted tobacco or drink. I will continue forever to praise God, from whom all blessings flow.

O.M.C.
Canton, Ohio

Dear Brother Nunn:

I shall never forget the revival that you held here in Nashville. We attended several nights, and I was in the prayer line the last Sunday you were there. I had a knot on my left eyelid that would swell up every few weeks. I had it cut off once, but it came right back. It was all swollen that Sunday. But when you prayed for me, by the time I got back to my seat, the place had burst, and was running out. It was all right in a day or two, and to this day I have never had any more trouble with it, Praise God!

Thank you for your prayers.

Mrs. L.H.
Old Hickory, Tennessee

Dear Brother Nunn:

I had been suffering from an infection in my jaws, caused from my teeth. Every time the weather changed, if it was extremely hot or damp, this trouble would start. My face would swell so, and I would be so sick and weak that I would have to go to bed.

You prayed for me at your meeting in Jackson, Tennessee. Almost three years have gone since then, and I have not so much as had a tooth-ache since. Thank you for your prayers.

Audrey Johnson
Bethel Springs, Tennessee

Dear Brother Nunn:

When you prayed for my stomach cancer, in three days it dried up and passed out like a scab off a knee sore.

Mrs. W. W. Platt
Meridian, Miss.

Dear Men of Faith:

I was at your convention at Canton in July. I had a heart condition for nearly ten years. When Rev. Nunn prayed in mass, I was healed. Praise the Lord! Now I am delivered. The Lord was so real, so wonderful. That is what it takes—the presence of Jesus.

I am told by my friends, "You are looking good." I have been able to do things I haven't been able to do for a long time.

I am thanking God daily, and many times a day for what He has done for me.

Mrs. Susan Sommer
Orrville, Ohio

Dear Brother Nunn:

I did not go in the line to be prayed for for healing. Just to make my radio pledge to you. Remember, I pulled out my appointment card with the doctor and showed it to you. I went ahead and kept it on December 5. It was like you said it would be. I could shout.

I have received my healing. The doctor said, "Man, what has happened to you? Your eyes are better than normal." The vision in each eye is 20/15, the external examination is negative. Muscle balance and visual fields are normal. The media are clear and the fundi and intocular tension normal. Refraction indicates no need for glasses. There is no evidence of any ocular pathology nor ocular evidence of intracranial pathology.

Rev. Virgil C. Marsh
Stephens City, Virginia

Dear Brother Nunn:

Brother Nunn, the lady I stood by proxy for on December 10th in Portland, Oregon was healed of a peptic ulcer and the internal hemorrhaging was stopped by God's mighty power. I give to Him all the glory.

M. B. Nichols

David Nunn's Sermon of the Month

God's Purpose for This Hour

The Apostle Paul told us that in the last days, fearful days would be upon us. We live in an hour when the dangers of atomic destruction have never been nearer, and men's hearts are failing them for fear of these terrible things that possibly could befall this generation.

We live in one of the most momentous hours of human history and although it is fraught with danger, it is pregnant with possibilities for the Glory of God's Kingdom. For God has sent a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gifts are being replaced in the Body of Christ. Miracle Ministries have been given to men who are winning tens of thousands of souls to Christ. The church has never had greater possibilities, and in many places she is realizing her full potential in God.

I believe that God has raised us up for this time. We are not here by accident. We are here for a divine purpose. Jesus said, "When this Gospel of the Kingdom has been preached as a witness unto all nations, then shall the end come."

That is the purpose of this mighty revival — World Evangelization. The great Joel revival that was prophesied is now in the earth. The whole purpose of this mighty outpouring is to reach the harvest of souls of all nations. When John was on the Isle of Patmos, he saw the multitude that would come out of this mighty Joel revival, and he saw this innumerable Host that the scripture says was out of every kindred, tribe and tongue.

The reason they were there was because they heard the truth, the Gospel of their Salvation, and believed. The Bible says faith comes by hearing and asks the question, "How shall the heathen man believe on him whom he has not heard?" The answer is obvious, "He will not believe until he has heard." The Apostle Paul asks another question, "How shall this heathen man hear without a preacher?" Again the answer is obvious: "He will not hear without a preacher." Then he asks one final question: "How shall this preacher go to the heathen unless the church sends him?" Again the answer is obvious: "He cannot go."

The church must rise to the occasion and send forth laborers into the whitened harvest fields to reap the harvest of this generation. This generation of Christians is responsible for this generation of heathen. We owe it to the heathen to bring him the message. We owe it to God because of the work of grace that has been wrought in our own hearts. The Apostle Paul said, "I am a debtor to all men."

That is the reason that we have instituted our network of radio stations carrying a daily message of Bible deliverance. We have given of our time and strength to bring the message of Christ to the nations. We thank God for the results that this program has produced in souls that have been won, in hundreds of answered prayers for the sick and suffering, and the daily inspiration that the shut-ins are receiving from this ministry.

Pray with us that God will help us to get a release of this broadcast in every state in the Union, and that He will provide the finances to take on the stations that are available overseas. This is our opportunity of reaching the nations through Radio.

Will the Antichrist Come Out of Russia?

by Gordon Lindsay

Taken from the "Revelation Made Easy" series of the World Correspondence Course

Christians, observing the rise of Communism, a system defiantly opposed to God, and bent on domination of the earth, are beginning to seriously ask the question, "Shall the Antichrist's kingdom develop out of Russia? Is that nation destined to conquer the earth? Shall all nations including America be brought under the curse of atheistic Communism?" We are happy to say that this Communist boast shall never be fulfilled. Nevertheless, prophecy shows that Communist Russia shall precipitate a terrible conflict before God judges and destroys her at Armageddon.

Before we attempt to give a detailed answer to the above questions, there are a number of things that we should consider. One thing is obvious: Russia is destined to play a vital role in events that are to take place at the end-time. She will not fade out of the picture until Armageddon and the Coming of Christ. Any satisfactory interpretation of prophecy must take into account Russia's dramatic rise to world power and her dominant role at the time of the end—a role long foreseen by Bible students, who predicted that Russia as the Colossus of the North, would sweep down into Bible lands just before the Battle of Armageddon.

Admitting Russia's major role in events of the end-time, let us ask the question: (1) Does the Beast of Revelation 13, represent Russia? (2) Something else than Russia? (3) Or, does it involve something closely related to Russia? We believe that the answer to this question will show that Russia is indeed associated with the Beast Power, although the latter involves more than Russia.

ARGUMENTS FAVORING RUSSIA AS THE EMPIRE OF THE BEAST OF REVELATION 13

Present world events indicate that Russia is deeply involved in the rise of the Beast of Revelation 13. The following significant circumstances may be pointed out:

1. The Beast power was to represent 10 countries. (Rev. 17:12) The Communist bloc now includes about ten countries, four of which were independent of each other before World War II.

- | | |
|--------------|-----------------|
| 1. Russia | 6. East Germany |
| 2. Poland | 7. Hungary |
| 3. Latvia | 8. Romania |
| 4. Lithuania | 9. Bulgaria |
| 5. Estonia | 10. Red China |

Communism has taken over parts of other countries such as Korea and Viet Nam, but has not succeeded in conquering these nations as a whole.

2. We can only touch this subject, but Bible students are aware that the Book of Daniel clearly teaches that the last world Empire, an empire dominating a large part of the earth, would be identified with Rome. The Great Image of Chapter 2, depicts four kingdoms that would rise in the earth. Babylon, Media-Persia, Greece and Rome in succession. The last one, Rome, would be destroyed at the coming of Christ. (Dan. 2:34-35)

Now Rome has been in power in various phases down through the entire Church Age. There was the Imperial Roman Empire, in the days of the apostles. Then the Roman Papacy developed, and assumed dominion over the earth for many centuries. Still later the Holy Roman Empire came into existence and continued until the Nineteenth Century. Finally there was the Greek, or Eastern Roman Empire. That Russia historically is the recognized successor of the Greek Roman Empire is a fact that even some prophetic scholars have overlooked. We quote from Encyclopedia Britannica, Edition XIV, ROMAN EMPIRE:

"Yet, as when Rome fell, the Catholic Church survived, and ultimately found for itself a new Empire of the West, so when Constantinople fell, the Orthodox Church continued its life, and found for itself a new Empire of the East—the Empire of Russia. Under Ivan the Great (1462-1505) Moscow became the Metropolis of Orthodoxy; Byzantine law influenced his code and he took for his cognizance the double-headed eagle. Ivan the Terrible, his grandson, finally assumed in 1547, the title of Tsar; and hence forth the Russian emperor is, in theory, and very largely in fact, the successor of the Old Eastern Roman emperor, the head of the Orthodox Church..." (E. B.)

3. Now that we have seen that Russia is the historical successor of the Greek Roman Empire, let us note that the Beast of Revelation 13, has the body of a leopard. (Dan. 7:6 and Rev. 13:2). Observe that the Book of Daniel speaks of the leopard as a symbol of the Greek Empire!

4. Moreover, the Beast of Revelation 13, has the feet of a bear. (Rev. 13:2) The symbol of Russia is that of a bear!

5. The Beast's color is red or scarlet—the color identified with Communism. (Rev. 17:3) Satan, who gives power to the Beast (Rev. 12:3), is symbolized by a red dragon.

6. Russia's main ally, China, is also symbolized by a dragon, the one used by the Book of Revelation for Satan.

7. Another symbol by which Communism identifies itself, is the "hammer and the sickle". Now, God often has used the wrath of man to praise Him. He once permitted the Rod of the Assyrian to punish the nations. "O Assyrian rod of mine anger and the staff in their hand is mine indignation." (Isa. 10:5) Now the "sickle", symbolically, is the instrument God will use to gather in the "grapes of wrath". (Rev. 14:17-19) God today is using the sickle of Communism in the same way that He once used the "rod" of the Assyrian.

8. Russia has many of the marks of the Antichrist. She has marched a long way toward her goal of world dominion. The Soviet Union being atheistic, wars against all religions and has practically destroyed the church within her borders.

From these many remarks we can see that Russia is remarkably identified with the characteristics of the Beast Power. Nevertheless, have we gotten the whole picture? Is there not something important missing? There is as we shall see.

THE DUAL NATURE OF THE BEAST KINGDOM

A careful study of Daniel 2 brings out a very remarkable fact. The Gentile world empire at the end of the age was to be a dual power—at times united, at other times divide. The quality is shown in the fact that Rome is represented by the two legs of the image. The feet and the toes of the image were "part of iron and partly of clay", thus showing the dual nature. Let us read about this in Dan 2:40-44.

"And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever."

Here is the prophetic word about this last world kingdom which finally gives way to that of Christ's. The Beast Kingdom will be united for a season, for a kingdom implies at least a temporary union of its parts, if it is a kingdom at all. But it will also be "divided". (Verse 41) It shall be "part of iron and part of clay". These two elements are obviously Fascism and Communism, the "iron" representing fascism, and the "clay", Communism. Thus, World War II, was precipitated by Hitler and Stalin conniving together to divide up Poland. Later on they turned against each other and fought a bloody war. Had Hitler and Stalin remained at peace, they could have easily conquered both Europe and Asia. But though they pretended peace, they were basically enemies, and before long they were at each others throats. The clay and the iron would not mix. Hitler drove into Russia in a lightning blitzkrieg and the two powers would have practically destroyed each other, had not the United States with 18 billion dollars of aid, intervened. America, alas, was unaware that she would later be repaid for her kindness by being threatened with atomic destruction by the Communists.

ROSH (RUSSIA) AND THE TEN-HORNED KINGDOM NOT IDENTICAL

Now Russia is clearly pictured in Ezekiel 38, as the great Northern Confederacy. Bible scholars for centuries, and long before Russia was blighted by Communism, identified her as the "Rosh" of Ezekiel's prophecy. She is represented as coming from the "North" (Verse 15) of Palestine. The only nation north of Palestine at all answering to the description of Ezekiel 38, is Russia.

DANIEL 11:40 SHOWS ROSH AND ANTICHRIST TO BE DISTINCT

The distinguishing of "Rosh" from the Antichrist can be seen in Daniel 11:40. Prophetic scholars generally agree that Daniel 11:36-45 speaks of the Antichrist. Here a wicked king, having every mark of the Antichrist, appears at the time of the end, doing "according to his own will, and (magnifying) himself above god". Verse 40, speaks of this Antichrist in his final days clashing in mortal conflict with the "king of the north".

"And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over." (Daniel 11:40)

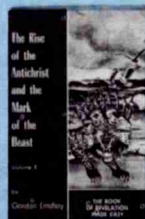

Who is this king of the North? It can only be Russia. This king and the Antichrist have been at peace, in a sort of a Rome-Moscow axis. But being iron and clay, the two components are fundamentally incompatible, and so they come to grips—just as Hitler and Russia, at one time allies, finally became enemies to the death.

THE RISE OF THE ANTICHRIST

Communism has become a world force that seeks to dominate the earth. It seeks to bring all peoples into its orbit. But Western Europe does not have an affinity with Eastern Europe. It looks with deep suspicion and apprehension at Russia's intentions. Indeed, at the present hour it is drawing ever closer into one economic unit as the result of the so-called Common Market. (This treaty of the Common Market was signed at Rome!) The United States of Europe is well on its way to becoming a reality. Is not this Common Market paving the way for the kingdom of the Antichrist? In seeking to protect itself against Communism, Western Europe is looking for a champion. Thus, the stage in Europe is being set for the rise of a strong man. A man that is endowed with genius, with the military abilities of Alexander the Great and Napoleon. An amazed world will watch, wonder, and be persuaded. At last the world has found a man who can hold the respect of Communism and

The great Evangelistic Center in Seoul dedicated after great cooperative effort of the Assemblies of God, Sam Todd and The Voice of Healing.

Maynard Ketcham, Missionary Secretary for the Far East Tells Story of Difficulties Overcome

Dear Brother Lindsay:

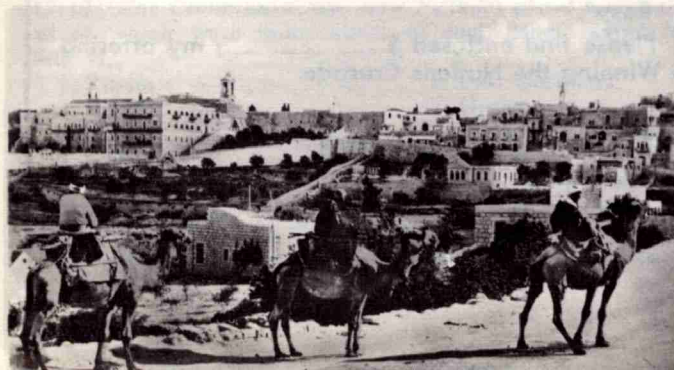

Greetings in the Name of the Triune God! This letter is being written to you because of your interest in our Revival Center building project in Seoul, Korea. You have backed this with your giving and with prayer, and we want to thank you for the same and give you a progress report.

It was over a year ago that we sent a missionary-engineer to Korea to start constructing the building. When it came time to secure building permits, etc., it became evident that a group of scheming people, taking advantage of political unrest and governmental confusion, had falsified records and created various legal entanglements. Naturally, these matters had to be straightened out before the program could continue. The Missions Department sent the field Secretary to Korea for a protracted stay during last winter. We are happy to report that God gave us great victory. Government officials were co-operative, and helped us get title deeds and constitutions property re-written and registered with the government. God also gave us a great victory in the Assemblies of God organization. Through this chastening experience, the work has profited and there is now a greater spirit of expectancy and unity than ever before.

Now we are proceeding rapidly with the program. Brother Todd is already in Korea, conducting a tent campaign on the lot next to our Revival Center. Our building nears completion and will be dedicated about the middle of this month. The revival meetings under Brother Todd will then continue in the Center building. This is a functional building—plain but commodious—and should seat about 1500. We believe that it will not only be a great church in its own right, but will also serve as the nerve center—as Pentecost sweeps through the South Korean peninsula. Already revival flames are burning brightly. More than one denominational church—pastor and congregation—have recently received the Pentecostal experience. Brother John Hurston, a man with an overwhelming burden for revival, is permanent director of the Center. Brother Cho Yunghi, a brilliant and deeply spiritual Korean pastor will be his associate. Korea continues to be a pathetic and poignant country—delicately balanced on the brittle edge of complete chaos. But we are believing that the revival which God is starting through the Revival Center will bring spiritual revival to the whole country and help save the day for the forces of righteousness. We dare to believe that, in God's great economy, this Revival Center project and our whole Korean Global Conquest program will beat back the powers of darkness, will save the country of Korea with its great historical, cultural, and religious background. God has indeed brought us to Korea "for such an hour as this".

The Full Gospel Among the Eskimos

by Rev. H. A. Maxwell Whyte

On the invitation of the resident independent missionary, Terry Frith, the writer flew in to the Arctic to hold the first known full-scale Deliverance Campaign ever to be held among the Eskimos and the Indians of the Mackenzie Delta, 200 miles inside the Arctic Circle during the last week of September and the first week in October, just before the great freeze-up.

In 1952, Don Violette, an independent missionary, had taken the Full Gospel to these people and already in nine years a great increase in New Testament Christianity is seen in every Eskimo community. Deliverance Campaigns were held by Pastor Whyte in Aklavik, Reindeer Station and Inuvik, and in each place souls turned to Christ, miracles of healing took place and twenty-two received the Baptism of the Spirit, speaking in other tongues. For the first time ever, the Loucheaux Indians turned to Christ, which caused great rejoicing, and some were baptized in the Spirit. It was estimated that at least fifty-five first time decisions occurred and the devil received a resounding blow in the Arctic. A woman was prayed for on the sidewalks of Aklavik who had an immobile paralyzed arm, and following prayer it was immediately released and completely healed. In fact, it seemed as if we had returned to Bible days as everywhere we went with Terry Frith, in the homes and on the street, people were being healed. An Eskimo woman in Reindeer Station had a peculiar type of blood poisoning in her arm which had not responded to medical treatment, and her husband had prayed sincerely that we would visit the settlement. Immediately after prayer in the Sunday morning service she was able to prepare a meal for her family, using this arm, and felt life returning to her fingers, and the next day the skin began to peel off the swelling. A nearly blind woman in Aklavik was able to thread her needle the next day after prayer without glasses, and a deaf mute girl received perfect hearing in Inuvik. A man with a paralyzed hand was instantly made whole in the High School Auditorium where the meetings were held in Inuvik.

The grip of the two major formalistic denominations in the Arctic is being rapidly broken as the people are freed by the saving power of the Blood of Christ and healed and filled with the Spirit. In Aklavik half the population of 500 attended our meetings, whereas the formal church had seven. We were able to inform the principal of the Inuvik Public School, who graciously made facilities available to us, that nothing would stop the onward progress of true revival and a return to apostolic Christianity in the North.

Young People Cooperate in Building a Native Church in Trinidad

by Harold Jackman

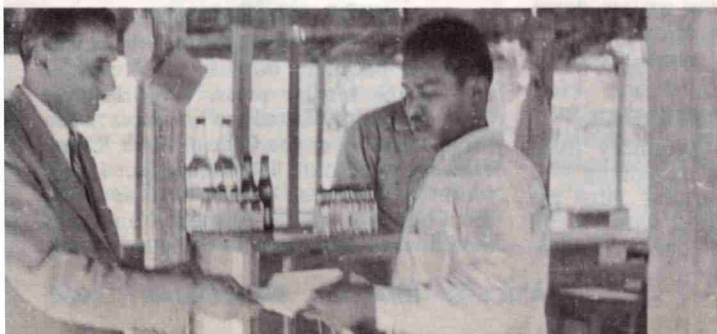

Greetings in Jesus Name. I have commenced the building of the church. The foundation is being laid. I have bought the galvanized roofing for covering and some of the lumber. I will not have to buy sand for the foundation, as there is a river back of the proposed building. It would certainly have been a pleasure for you to see the young people carrying lumber for half a mile, as the bridge which crosses the river to the road which leads to our church is being rebuilt. The young people have cleared the spot and are working very hard. I will appreciate it very much if you can send the remainder of the money as I need it for the blocks for the walls of the church, and wires for the lights. I am enclosing a picture of some of the young people and Sunday school children. On completion of the building some time in January, or February, I will send you a picture of the building and the entire congregation. Truly God is wonderful. I want to state that I appreciate very much the help you have given us. For if it had not been for that help the proposed building would not be a reality. God bless you.

Rihany Gives Report from Jordan

"Since you left Jordan I started daily meetings in Es Salt the city of Ramoth-Gilead, Amman, Capitol of Jordan, and in the city of Zerka. We now have six places in six cities where we run our meetings and our Sunday Schools. But it is not enough to rent a meeting place in Jordan and wait for the people to come, for we must take the word of God to them. So I take the Bibles and Scripture portion with me whether I am in cities, villages, or highways. Hundreds of thousands of refugees now live in Jordan so I also go among these needy people with the printed word of God. Thank you for your check and for your kindness.

"I went also to Bethlehem to find out about the land that had been given us. It is in the outskirts of town, and needs to be sold so that we can build closer in. Really the great need in Bethlehem is to build a church there for the glory of Christ."

(Ed. Surely a church is needed in Bethlehem where Christ was born. Rihany already has a congregation, but a church is needed to take care of the people. Pray that God will enable us to accomplish that end.)

EVERY CHRISTIAN FAMILY SHOULD SPONSOR AT LEAST ONE NATIVE CHURCH

Every Christian family wants to do their best for God. We know that time is running out, and each of us want to feel that we have done our best for God. How then can we get the most out of our missionary dollars? Most of us know that if there were no preachers, there would be no churches. That is also true in the missionary field.

But after the gospel is preached, what comes next? There has to be a church where people can worship. If no churches had been built in America, the gospel would have fought a losing battle. New babes in Christ must have a home, just as babies born in the natural must have a home. We may truthfully say that the great need in the mission field is the building of native churches. Missionaries everywhere are emphasizing this need. The evangelist can live with the people that he preaches to, just as the American evangelist can live upon offerings from the people he ministers to. But in foreign lands that leaves little left with which to build a church.

Now the wonderful thing is, that not a great deal of money is needed. Often the people are able to secure a lot. They can build blocks and hew timbers out of the forest. They will donate all the labor. But all this is not enough. They must have nails, money for roofing, cement for the floor, and for doors and windows to keep out the weather. At least $250 is required to make possible the building of a native church. (Larger native churches require between $300 and $400.) While the $250 is only a part of the total cost, the money makes the difference in many cases between having a church and not having a church.

Thus it is possible for every American family to build at least one native church. Many will want to build more. When once they have experienced the joy of having sponsored a native church, many will want to build another. Be that as it may, every American family could sponsor at least one native church. For the cost of a refrigerator, a washer, a television set, they can sponsor a native church. Why not sit down this minute and fill out the coupon below and mail it to us at once? A church will be assigned to you.

We have determined on the sum of $250 as the amount needed for the average native church. However, we find that many of the larger native churches require between $300 and $400.

Note: We have discovered already that many people want to pay for the church at once. Others in large payments. Still others are able to do it in small payments. Any way that is convenient for you, will be convenient for us. Naturally the sooner you can send the money, the sooner the church can be built. Why not sit down this moment and fill out the coupon below and mail it to us at once?

Prophecy Shakes Scandinavian Country!

Thousands Seek Christ and Rededicate Themselves to God in All Churches

by Leo Meller — Member of the Lutheran Church of Finland

In Finland — a Northern European country set between Russia in the East, Sweden in the West and Norway up in the North — the religious life had been passing on much the same for decades. A Lutheran State Church is well established since the early days of Protestant reformation, and strong revivals starting both in and outside the official church have for a number of times swept over the country with lasting results. Lutheran revival movements have been greatly used by God to draw people to the wells of Life eternal, and in due time Methodism, Congregationalism and Pentecost were sent from heaven as refreshments over a dry and thirsty land. Sure, revival fires have never been extinguished in Finland; it only seemed as if people now were getting themselves accustomed to certain religious rules and forms instead of letting the Spirit of God work freely.

But then something happened — the God of Prophecy revealed Himself and spoke to Finland as in the days of old!

HOW IT BEGAN

In Finland everybody from the men on the streets up to the University professors know of and discuss the prophecy. Within this or some previous generations nothing probably has aroused such a move in this country as this. And this is how it all began:

On Tuesday, August 23rd, 1960, Miss Aune Heinonen, a 35 year old high-school senior teacher, and her sister, Miss Laila Heinonen, a 32 year old Provincial Government Bureau clerk, daughters of the well-known Judge Mr. J. A. Heinonen from the city of Oulu in Northern Finland, had attended a Lutheran worship-service at the diocese Cathedral in Oulu. When the service was over, the two ladies felt they had not profited spiritually of it at all, and between themselves they criticized it. However, when at home another thought occurred to them:

Instead of blaming the preacher for an empty service they began to search their own hearts. The result was that they found that the reason for their not receiving any blessing could be hidden in them. They prayed God to forgive them their attitude, and give them more love and understanding.

While in prayer, the youngest sister

THE AUTHOR, LEO MELLER WRITES:

Some time ago I got on my desk the November issue of your magazine. I studied with interest the accounts of Pentecostal manifestations within denominational churches; and so it happens that things like those described are presently going on in the Lutheran Church here . . . I happened to have a MS ready when your magazine arrived . . . In order to let you know of the great move of God in the Lutheran Church, of which I am a member, I am rushing it to you. Feel free to use the material in the enclosed MS any way you may desire.

Laila suddenly experienced a mighty baptism in the Holy Ghost. She spoke and prayed in an unknown tongue, whereupon abruptly through this human vessel of clay came a prophetic message which within the past year now has been distributed in booklet form as well as on magazine pages in hundreds of thousands of copies. The message began with the words: "FINLAND THY SALVATION IS IN THE BLOOD OF MY SON!", after which followed the first in a continuing series of prophecies directed to the nation of Finland. The prophecy included a severe warning from God to put an end to all wickedness and evil. This being done, God would send a wonderful revival; whereas if the message would not be heeded, a time of judgment and wrath unheard of would break loose upon the country. The voice of God required that a certain number of intercessors be found who would continually pray for Finland as well as for other countries. Finland was given a special time of calling, lasting until the 31st of August, 1961; a time which, however, was later lengthened to last to the end of the year. God also commanded that this message is to be taken to the whole nation, and therefore it was written down by Miss Aune Heinonen after her sister upon prayer uttered the same prophecy for a second time.

PROPHECY — A BIBLE FACT

Now, in the gift of prophecy itself there is little that needs explaining — it is one of the nine spiritual gifts the Church has been entrusted with, in all ages (1 Cor. 12:4-31). The Scriptures and Church History give ample proof of this. In fact, in these last days just prior to Christ's coming for His Church, all spiritual gifts will be working among Christians the same way as with the apostles. On this the Bible is very clear (Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:17-19). Christians are urged by Paul to "covet earnestly the best gifts" (1 Cor. 12:31), and in 1 Cor. 14:1 it reads, "Desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy" since "he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort" (v. 3). Wherever believers are expecting God to work out His wonders this gift can be experienced to the comfort of the Church, because "the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy" (Rev. 19:10).

The gift of prophecy is widely accepted in what is identified as the Pentecostal movement, but in a Lutheran denomination with its stately Cathedrals and formal worship this gift has really not had too wide acclaim. But God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform! When He saw how the first love of the Finnish Christians began to turn into lukewarmness and how sin and wickedness began to abound, He saw fit to choose a humble Christian lady, greatly honored by all her fellow Christians as well as other friends, to become a mouthpiece through which a powerful message was to reach the Finns — and all this began and is continually going on within the Lutheran State Church! To study the circumstances where the prophecy was given and to follow its circulation is amazing, and still more astounding it is to see how it has been received by the people. Literally like a fire sent down from heaven the prophetic message has encircled the country, and everywhere it has resulted in revival and prayerful expectancy.

WIDE CIRCULATION

From the beginning, the prophecy has received publicity both in the religious and in the secular press, while lectures and sermons related to it have been broadcasted over the Official State Radio. However, the most interesting fact is that scores of Lutheran priests have accepted the Challenge of the Almighty, and with new divine courage and new love towards Typical crowd in the Richard Vinyard Campaign in Kuopio, Finland.

God and lost souls have started an all-out effort to win their country for Christ as long as it is today. Lutheran Publishing Houses have undertaken the task of publishing all the prophecies in book form, and prominent priests and theologians have stood up to defend the work of God. Typical of the many positive statements made by clergy is this one by Rev. Selim Melin, a prominent West Coast minister: "The Church exists in order to listen to what God the Lord says, and then send His message onwards. There is all reason for joy and gratitude in case our Church is still allowed to be an instrument thru which God will work for the best of our people." The feelings of the laity again are well reflected in these words uttered by a famous layman, Lutheran Social Councillor Mr. Albin Wickman: "Our Church has been called a Church of revival movements. Therefore it is right that her priests by every possible way support and are engaged in this present revival. Our foremost need in view of the seriousness of these days is an old-fashioned, Biblical peoples' revival."

THE RESULTS

But even if the prophecy has caused much blessing it has to be admitted though, that all have not accepted the prophetic messages humbly and gratefully. A God that reveals His will in supernatural prophecy is a horror to liberal and self-righteous church-people. However, the fact is that in spite of opposition from certain circles, the ministry of the Church has been revolutionized in many aspects. The Gospel is being preached with new fervor and zeal, and sinners and saints alike are all assembling beneath the arms of the Cross of Christ—the only true shelter in the time of tribulation soon to come over the whole world. A new faith in the supernatural has been aroused, and the Lord has especially urged Christians to pray for the sick. "When you lay your hands on the sick, He works if you believe... I want to deal my gifts. I want great miracles to take place in these last days... If you say to a cripple: 'In the Name of Jesus Christ: Stand up!', there is power in the Name of Jesus... When you lay your hand on a blind man and say: 'In the Name of Jesus you will receive your sight!', Jesus will do it, and when you believe, verily Jesus heals him"—this is what has been uttered by the Spirit. Around the country, large Second Coming and Prophecy meetings are held, and at the time of writing the writer knows of four such meetings going on in different Lutheran congregations in Helsinki, the capitol city of Finland. A wave of tireless intercession is day and night reaching the Throne of Heaven for Finland so that God by the riches of His mercy would, if possible, save this country. Till today God has guided Finland through many a peril—what lies ahead He alone knows. The burden of Finnish Christians is great; the future of their nation is at stake, and every passing day draws them closer to God's all-wise decisions.

A FEARFUL POSSIBILITY

In case Finland rejects her time of calling and hardens her heart, God will punish the nation by scattering its inhabitants to other countries while a foreign power settles down in Finland—"... I shall give you the same destiny as to Esthonia, Hungary and other countries. Finland shall yet cry and moan..."—this is the prophetic warning which like a trumpet call has been sounded all over the country. And knowing the political situation of Finland, a possibility like this does not sound imaginary to Finns who, to use the words of Austin Goodrich in his book "Finland's Fight for Independence", "had to face the danger of being turned into a Soviet satellite through occupation or by non-military means". And this danger was close at hand in November, 1961, when Finland and the whole world was taken with surprise as Russia sent a note to the Finnish Government requesting military negotiations. These are some of the details:

In the early days of February, 1948, USSR established friendship and mutual assistance pacts with Rumania and Hungary, and later the same month Stalin sent a letter to the Finnish President expressing his desire that a similar pact should be made between Russia and Finland as well. A Finnish delegation was sent to Moscow, and then on April the 6th an Agreement of Friendship, Cooperation and Mutual Assistance was signed between USSR and Finland. Without going into all the details, it only needs to be mentioned that this agreement makes it possible for Russia to send troops into Finland in case both parties feel the "eventuality of... becoming the object of an armed attack by Germany or any State allied with the latter". This move should, of course, be preceded with mutual consultations—but as it has been headlined on the front pages of the World Press, a note requesting these very consultations was given to Finland while the President of the Republic, Mr. Urho Kekkonen was touring U.S.A. and Canada on a friendship visit. What then happened is well known, and does not need to be repeated, suffice it to be said that the note took the Finns entirely with surprise and grasped their minds with fear. The Finnish Minister Ahti Karjalainen had to leave for Moscow, followed by the President who had to travel to Siberia to meet the Russian Premier Khrushchev. As a result of these discussions, the planned military negotiations were postponed at least for a limited time.

But—every Finn knows the clouds of danger are still hanging heavily above their country. Anything can happen—and those who believe in God and the prophetic warnings, know this very well. They believe that the Russian note could have been the beginning of God's punishments, and if Finland fails to repent, anything can still happen. Or to quote one more time the words of Mr. Albin Wickman, originally published in a leading Lutheran magazine: "The result (of the discussions in Russia) meant a temporary relief and a lengthened time of mercy and calling for Finland... The danger is not yet over. Pray, pray, pray! Finland, thy salvation is in the Blood of My Son!"

When this reaches the reader, the time of calling has already ended. The destiny of this tiny Scandinavian country has been sealed in the heavens, and the future will show what God's righteous judgments have been. Certainly "the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whosoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men" (Dan. 4:17).

Faith Clinic

by W. V. GRANT

Why don't we see revival in our church, and why do we have so many church splits?

Most churches are splits or splinters from another church. Everyone who begins a new church is from another church, it seems. People wonder why we don't have what they term a revival.

The word "revival" is not mentioned in the New Testament. The Lord does not expect the church to die, so that it will need to be revived. If a church is busy working and going it will not be apt to freeze.

A true move of God will put people into the next towns, reaching the unreached. The Holy Ghost comes to make us witnesses in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth. (Acts 1:8).

In the early church some of the Christians hid out and worshipped the Lord, but they went out on the streets, or to the next towns, to witness. Sometimes they were put into jail for doing so. Many Christians today only witness to other Christians inside their church house.

NEW TESTAMENT REVIVAL

Just telling people to make a decision and sign a card is not a New Testament way to win souls. Merely to have a large crowd is not a true New Testament pattern. Philip went down to Samaria. He was not an apostle. He was a grocery boy. He went to a new place, a new city, and another race. He saw devils cast out, the sick healed, and his converts filled with the Holy Ghost before he left town. He saw the gift of discerning of spirits at work. He found that merely believing and being baptized will not change the hearts of men. (Acts 8:12, 21).

This move of the Spirit did not take place until a "split" came in the home church at Jerusalem. Persecutions came and scattered the members of the home church every direction. Then they preached as they went. (Acts 8:3-4).

These men would not have gone everywhere winning souls had the persecutions not taken place in their church. They would have gathered around the home church taking it easy. Had they gone out and evangelized the world, as Jesus commanded, the persecutions no doubt would not have come as they did.

If something would come along to scatter some of the members in your church who are having it so easy more churches would begin springing up all around you in the next cities. There are enough people to fill all the churches that may be built.

THE REAL MOVE

A real move of God will send Christians out in the streets, night clubs, bars, and the next cities, to witness of the saving grace of God. They will begin a new church at every cross roads school house, or postoffice. They will start a new church in a new place instead of trying to get the other man's church. Twenty people will not apply for one church. They will not settle in one easy spot. When you stop that is where you freeze.

I met a man this week who is a proud pastor of a church in a near by town, which has a population of eight hundred. There are eight churches in that town of eight hundred. I suppose they have seven deacons to each church. He wants me to come hold him a "revival." Do I need to go there where there is one church to each one hundred people? In some places there is one church to each fifteen thousand people.

I was a deacon in a good church when I was nineteen years old. I could not see as the other deacons. We clashed. I could not understand it. When I prayed I was led by the Lord. Soon I was building churches on every side. They are yet standing. They are now established places of worship. Had I prayed; had I gone out and done this as I should the "split" would not have come.

If you are in a church where there are so many people with the same calling, nice talents, and all of them want to do the same thing for God, why don't you go out to the cities beyond you and win souls before the persecutions come and push you out. People are dying all around you. "Go YE into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature". Do it willingly or the Lord may allow something to come to scatter the people and cause them to go.

COMMUNE WITH GOD

BY W. V. GRANT

After 29 years of experience in prayer, and reading through the Bible several times Brother Grant has just received one of the most amazing revelations concerning prayer. 95% of our prayers should be God talking to us and 5% us talking to God. Prayer must be a two-way line of communication to bring results. Most people have said that early in the morning is the best time to pray, but Evangelist Grant has made a great discovery that proves that the best time to commune with God and expect an answer is the time of day that is taught in the Bible from cover to cover. Get this amazing new book if you want your life renewed—if you want to be used of God in the revival that is now on its way.

Seven Baptist Ministers Receive Holy Ghost in Tampa Area

We desire to utilize the messages contained in The Voice of Healing for local ministering in the interest of Holy Spirit Baptism truth.

There is an unusual awakening in this respect, in the Tampa, Florida area. A local home prayer meeting has served as the base where at least seven Baptist ministers have been baptized, including the pastor of a large church in the city, with over $600,000.00 property investment.

This latter pastor has been conducting a radio broadcast for some time, but suddenly we observed that his program became alive, and publicly over his broadcast he stated, "We Baptists have known for years what the new birth is in experience, but we did not know what Pentecost was in this manner." In a message to the FGBMF breakfast, October 7th, he told about having notes sufficient for many, many sermons on the Holy Spirit Baptism, all dealing with it from a theoretical standpoint. But only recently did he discover it experimentally and now the picture has so changed that instead of preparing sermons, he now wonders when he will have time to preach what he is receiving.

A Miracle of Deliverance from Fire

Dear Brother Lindsay:

On February 2nd., 1940, I was saved and the first sermon I heard by the church pastor was on tithing. It was interesting, but I knew that it was just impossible for me, for a court order was on me, and not much work; also, wages were low then.

However, when I got my first pay, I took out my 10th or tithe because he said it would pay off in the end. It surely did!

In 1951, I received the Holy Spirit and shortly after double tithed, till my retirement. I had two nice houses and three nice cars. I sold one of my houses and turned all the money principal and interest into the Lord's work till my retirement.

In 1956, I went to Detroit one Sunday morning to church, getting home about 3:00 P.M. and decided to warm up a piece of meat for lunch. There was quite a lot of grease in the skillet, and in my hurry to eat I put the lid on the skillet and set it back on the back burner. I thought I had turned it off but instead turned on the front burner (electric) and never noticed the red light was on.

Presently, I looked up, and couldn't see the ceiling for smoke. The handle was over the front burner, and when I picked the skillet up, my hand burned and at the same time, took the lid off. The next thing I had a fire. I dumped it in the kitchen sink, and the cabinet got on fire and window trim, also venetian blind.

When the grease exploded, my glasses were covered with grease, face and arms burned, and I panicked for a moment. In that moment a vision appeared between me and the fire — a verse of scripture appeared on a screen. It said, "I will rebuke the devourer for your sake." (Mal. 3:11) I was dumbfounded for a spell, trying to think why this scripture. When it left, the thought came to me to rebuke it so I said, "Thou demon of fire, I rebuke you in Jesus' name, go out." And do you know, Sir, it went out completely. Even live coals of fire on the blind and cupboard went out. Yes, even the grease burns on my arms and face stopped burning. It's almost fantastic and unbelievable, but that is what happened. Every time I look up and see the scar of that fire on the cabinet, I say, "Thank you Jesus." Just think, He's my Saviour, Baptizer, Healer, and Firechief. Praise His name! He's wonderful.

40 Signs of the Soon Coming of Christ

Dear Brother Lindsay:

Again I wish to tell how grateful I am to you for sending the books as requested. The Lord is definitely challenging and stirring our hearts through them, and on behalf of a number of the Students of Moorlands Bible College, I would like to thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Your book "40 Signs of the Soon Coming of Christ" has been and is being read with great interest by the students, and is very much in demand. It is rousing us up and giving us an incentive to study the Scriptures on this important and relevant Truth and Hope.

One of the brethren who has been baptized in the Spirit has also received the Gift of Prophecy; and the wife of this same chap was baptized in the Holy Ghost, and spoke in tongues; she was also healed of a bodily ailment a few weeks ago.

Inspiration from the Voice of Healing

Dear Brethren in Christ:

I feel I must take a few lines to say how much your magazine has meant to me. Still Healed After Eleven Years

Dear Brother Lindsay:

I want to give my testimony of my healing. I had suffered for 22 years of a very bad disease. Suoliston Kaymiskatarri.

In the spring of 1950, in Kuopio, during William Branham's healing meetings, one day in the day meeting, during Brother Gordon Lindsay's sermon, I received health in the name of Jesus Christ. I have been well since.

I am 50 years of age. For 26 years I have been working as evangelist in my country.

Healed of an Ear Condition

Dear Brother Lindsay:

I had a severe ear condition for over a month. I could hardly hear and there was not much feeling in my head. I wrote, asking you to pray for me. Now I can hear fine, and my head has its normal feeling.

I promised you I would thank the Lord and you, Brother Lindsay, when the answer came by writing to you. So here is my thanksgiving, first to my precious Lord and to all of you dear ones in Him who have prayed. I am so very thankful.

Appreciates "How You Can Have Divine Health"

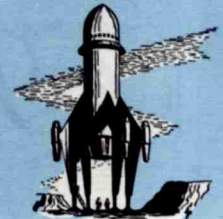

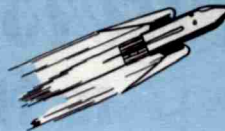

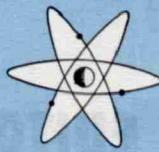

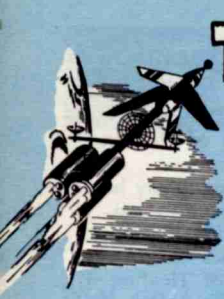

Dear Brother Lindsay:

I want to write a word of appreciation for your new course, "How You Can Have Divine Health." We feel that is what we have needed for sometime.

Certainly what we need in this day as you have expressed it so beautifully is to know our authority and dominion over the devil and the powers of darkness. To command these evil forces in the name of the Lord for truly Christ has borne the curse and defeated our foe. Praise His wonderful Name. Only eternity will reveal the blessing your consecrated life to the Lord has been. We appreciate your interpreting Scripture with Scripture for it is "What saith the Lord" that we need, to set us free.

THE MARCH OF PROPHECY

(A FEATURE TO KEEP READERS INFORMED OF WORLD EVENTS WHICH HAVE UNUSUAL PROPHETIC SIGNIFICANCE.)

COMMUNISM IN LATIN AMERICA

What is the real underlying reason for the spread of Communism in Latin America? It has one principal cause. For centuries a small number of people in these countries have lived in luxury while the masses have existed in poverty. Now suddenly all over the world the poor have become tired of being poor. Unless the governments in the Latin-American countries can change this order there will be Communist revolution and uprisings everywhere. Unless these reforms are made swiftly the masses will turn to Castros and to violence. And if Communism becomes entrenched in the countries to the south of us then we may be assured that America will face the greatest crisis of her existence.

EUROPE IN 1962

There will be further progress in Europe in 1962 toward economic unification. Britain has decided to join the Common Market. Europe for the first time in many decades will exceed the production of the United States. The Common Market incidentally was signed in Rome by SIX governments. Is not this Euratom surely leading the way toward a supranational government, a United States of Europe? Will not this pave the way for the kingdom of the Antichrist?

ASIA IN 1962

South Vietnam is slowly falling into the camp of the Communists. President Diem is gradually seeing his power diminish while the Communist build-up continues. Unless America throws great strength into the battle, Vietnam is lost.

Half of Laos has already fallen to the Communists. A "coalition" government is being formed now which is certain to be dominated by the Communists.

CHAOS IN AFRICA IN 1962

The U. N. has cut down the one strong friend the West had in the Congo, the province of Katanga. Katanga was for the West, while the Congo to the North is a ripe plum ready to fall into the Communist Camp.

The black dictators, once they get control of a country, destroy all form of democracy. It is a well-known fact that much of the U. S. aid that is sent to Africa is being wasted. Very little is going to the poor people. One big item is the building of luxurious palaces. Nkrumah is constructing a $3,000,000 Black Star Square. Liberia is erecting a presidential palace costing $12,000,000 complete with bomb shelter. One African leader explains it this way:

"Our people require their leaders to live extravagantly. Black power which has succeeded white power must look even more glittering. Otherwise, our people would say that the white man is still boss."

THE U. N. AND THE CONGO IN 1962

A western European delegate stated in the U. N. lounge recently, "The U. N. effort in the Congo has bankrupted the United Nations, killed a Secretary General, split the Western Alliance, and set whites and blacks to fighting in the heart of Africa, and you ask me where the U. N. is going!" The delegate then with a profane emphasis told where the U. N. was going. The United Nations, conceived in the pride of man, set up in alliance with godless Russia as one of the main charter nations, can have but one end, an inglorious demise similar to that of the League of Nations. The differences between the Communist nations and the West will not be settled around the conference table, but by the naked sword.

U Thant, a Buddhist, is now Secretary-General of the United Nations. The U. N. treasury is bankrupt. Russia who obstructs and hinders its operation and legislation in every way possible, refuses to pay a dime of its expenses. The American tax payers have to make up the difference. The year 1962 will no doubt continue to see a tide of Anti-U. N. feeling rising. The clamor for admitting Red China into the U. N. is reaching powerful proportions. The U. N. is said to be the world's last best hope. Alas, it is a hope that will surely fail!

Nehru who has preached peace for years, suddenly shows himself to be the hypocrite and sends armed forces into helpless Goa and seizes this Portuguese protectorate. News emanating from Portugal indicates that she may soon withdraw from the United Nations.

Prophecy indicates that the United States of Europe will take the place of the United Nations. But this United States of Europe will evidently be the kingdom of the Antichrist. (Rev. 13 and 17)

SPACE IN 1962

The space race will pick up momentum in 1962. There will be further spectaculars. The U. S. will orbit men around the earth for as long as a week. There are reports that Russia will send a man around the moon in the coming year. That within five years they will have a man on the moon.

It is expected that the U. S. will orbit men around the earth at sixty day intervals this coming year. In Project Ranger it is planned to put a spacecraft on the moon to relay back important information about surface conditions. Another rocket will be sent within 100,000 miles of Venus to investigate and relay back surface and atmospheric conditions. New weather satellites will be launched, and a new communication balloon will be put in orbit.

And so man seeks to ascend into the heavens, seemingly unaware that the tides of Divine judgment are soon to be unleashed on an unrepentant generation.

The Vision of the Black Horse Dome

BY GORDON LINDSAY

Can God work supernaturally in the lives of businessmen? Can God perform miracles for those in the business world whose lives are dedicated to Him? We believe the story of Ray Hostutler will answer this in the strong affirmative. The world missionary field needs businessmen whom God can use in a large way in these critical days.

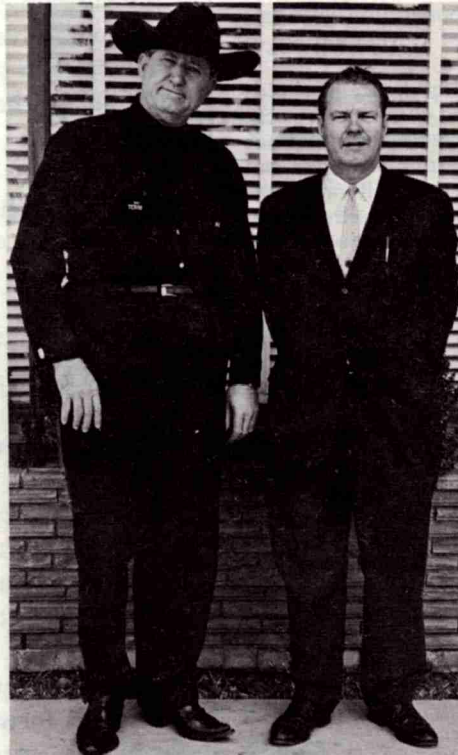

Ray Hostutler is a Christian business man, whose life is devoted to God. Several years ago, God showed him in a vision that underneath certain property near Canadian, in Hemphill County, Texas, there was a great dome of oil. Since there was no particular indication of oil, owners were leasing the contiguous land to the oil companies who buy large sections for exploration. Believing, however, in the vision that God had given him of the oil dome, he would not lease the land to any company at any price.

Some years passed, and from time to time friends discussed the matter of the property. Invariably, he expressed his complete confidence in what God had shown him.

Finally, things began to happen. Oil wells were drilled nearer and nearer to this particular piece of land, until at length, it was evident that this property was in the center of a cross of oil-bearing strata. New wells as they came in were yielding an enormous pressure, proving beyond doubt the presence of a vast deposit of oil and gas in the whole area.

Oilmen, who generally are quite hard headed businessmen, were amazed at the story of Mr. Hostutler. An interesting example is found in the official survey made by the consulting geologist, who prepared the following report and included in it, a statement of his own astonishment at the testimony of Mr. Hostutler. A few significant excerpts from the survey of several pages follow:

"Mr. Ray Hostutler was first given a dream and then later a vision of a 'dome in the nature of a man's head without hair rising out of the earth, rising so much higher than all others that it would be desired and sought after by the largest circus to be displayed as one of the seven wonders of the world.' This was seen within a circle similar to a flat biscuit top consisting of all of the Northeast Quarter of Section 55 and overlapping on all four sides being near 320 acres in all in Hemphill County, Texas. In watching his countenance light up in telling of his vision, at no time did we doubt his sincerity. Being a geologist, we could only wait in askance. We would have to say it is very strange as we find his picture and our picture perfectly corresponding one with the other, unless we give credence by accepting his dream as basically sound, especially since we find that he is completely void of any understanding pertaining to the highly technical petroleum profession. We will use his own words to adequately describe his lack of such knowledge. He says: 'I do know the difference between a prairie dog hole and an oil well.'

"Mr. Hostutler, being a business man in the strictest sense of the word, is a fundamentalist with implicit belief and faith in his God Almighty, and has a strong desire and, as he terms it, 'a short time to walk upon earth among the children of men.' He says as is to use his own words, 'going to invest with those found capable and willing to plant in the hearts of the unreached savages and even the Chinese living at the opposite end of the earth the simple story of the living Christ who has come into the world bringing deliverance to all the children of men, teaching only what the Bible says, no more, no less'. He says, 'In believing it is God, no power can bind it.' So it is quite apparent that Mr. Hostutler is a man with a purpose in life who is firmly set in his beliefs, and in allegiance to his God, is not going to be swayed by public opinion. The amazing thing to this writer, however, is that this prospect which had no known geological evidence in 1955, when first given to Mr. Hostutler, is now strongly supported by geology as an excellent prospect. . . .

"In view of the history of this prospect and in the light of the geological support that now conforms with Mr. Hostutler's picture, it becomes apparent that this is not an ordinary 'run of the mill' drilling prospect. On the basis of present geological information, it is believed that this prospect lies near the center of a domical shaped structure on a large regional anticline." (Since the time of this report the area has received the name of the Black Horse Dome.)

Quite a number of months have elapsed since the above survey was made. What were favorable indications have now become a practical certainty. Wells being drilled show such pressure that drillers are encountering difficulty in containing them. Mr. Hostutler is not excited however. He considers the matter entirely from God's standpoint, and says, "All businessmen should embed themselves in God's word, and be led by Him. By so doing, they will glorify God and not man."

That is good advice. God is still able to do miracles, and prove Himself to those who are willing to consecrate their lives to Him, and who will, when God blesses them, use their means for the development of His kingdom.

We will be watching with great interest the development of the Black Horse Dome in the days to come.

WILL THE ANTICHRIST COME OUT OF RUSSIA?

The world vainly supposes it is saved. But alas this man has come in the power of Satan. Underneath his deceptive exterior, lurk the fires of hell. He is the devil's prime minister. He ushers in a dictatorship in its most diabolical form. He initiates a loyalty test by which no man may buy nor sell, save he takes the Mark of the Beast!

The nations of Europe, weary with their long struggle with Communism rejoice in that they at last have a champion who can stand up against Khrushchev, or whoever happens to be in power in the Communist hierarchy. The terrible threat of the atomic war provides the incentive for full cooperation with this new leader. The ten-kingdom confederacy of Revelation 17, is formed.

The Antichrist, for that is who this sinister figure is, holds summit conferences with the Communists and comes to a working agreement with them. He makes treaties with other nations including the Jews. And America? For reasons we have not space to discuss here, we believe that America will not enter into this alliance. She will have deep misgivings about the whole thing. In the end when Russia moves down into the Holy Land, the U.S. and Britain as "the merchants of Tarshish with all the young lions thereof" will strongly oppose this invasion. (Ezek. 38:13) So we have the three confederacies, Rosh, the Antichrist, and the Anglo-Saxon nations. (Just as there really were in World War II—The Rome-Berlin-Tokyo axis, Russia, and the allies.) They are all seen in Daniel 11:40. This is the hour spoken of so many times in prophecy, when God will bring all nations to Armageddon.

The Antichrist will come with great fury against the Communists, and the two will battle each other, as Hitler and Stalin did. The center of the mighty conflict will focus at Armageddon. The Antichrist has power to call down fire out of "heaven". (Gr. Uoranos) (Rev. 13:13) This may be a reference to atomic warfare. In this last great battle, cities will be destroyed in an hour's time. (Rev. 18:8-10) Only a hydrogen bomb could destroy a city that quickly. Babylon will fall and so will other cities. "The cities of the nations fell." (Rev. 16:19)

D-DAY AND 666

But now God will go forth against those nations which have come up against Jerusalem. (Zech. 14:1-3) Russia and the Antichrist will meet their doom as Ezek. 38-39, and Rev. 19, clearly show. The Lord will save the righteous by His own right hand, and not by "might nor power".

The Allies supposed that they had saved Europe when they invaded Normandy Beach on D-day and overthrew Hitler. But Europe is not saved. One worse than Hitler is coming! D-day was marked by an ominous number, 666!

D-day occurred on the June 6, 1944, which was the 6th hour of the 6th day of the 6th month of the 6th year of the war!

The Mark of the Beast is 666! Here are four sixes!

Thank God, while hope on the earth fades, and men's hearts are failing them for fear, the Christian has a true hope—the hope of His coming. We need not frantically hunt for an a-bomb shelter. We already have one. "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the almighty . . . a thousand shall fall at thy side, ten thousand at thy right hand, but it shall not come nigh thee." (Psalms 91:1, 7)

How then, friend, is it with you? Have you placed your hand in the hand of Christ? Have you dedicated all to Him? If not, do it now. Flee to the rock which is higher than you!

This beautiful poem given directly by the Spirit of God to John G. Lake was previously published by the Voice of Healing. Because we believe it of such exceptional merit we are republishing it.

THE CALL OF GOD

Out of the darkness of night have I called thee,
Into the glorious light of the day,
Into the knowledge of God's own salvation,
Entered through Jesus the Truth, Light, and Way.

He who hath planted within thine own bosom
Conscious salvation through Jesus the Lord,
Now waits to see the result of the ransom,
Fulfilled in thee through Spirit and Word.

Yield then thy being, like Him, thine own Master,
His way for thee is the way of the Cross,
Perfected He, e'en through sorrow and suffering,
Obedient ever, even to death.

Here as with Him is the secret of victory
That having died, from the grave He arose;
In the new life of power Divine, and majestic
Triumphing over death, hell and all foes.

Ascending upward above all the heavens
Into the realms of glory Divine,
Reigning as conqueror, sending His Spirit;
Abiding ever in your heart and mine.

Thus in our nature the Spirit of conquest
Presses us forward in God's Holy War,
Advancing, compelling, delivering, destroying,
All powers of darkness, wherever they are.

Through death to victory, through trial to conquest,
Through suffering to glory, dominion and power,
Thus Calvary ever becomes the door opened,
To Jesus, to Heaven, to discipleship now.
