THE WORLD CORRESPONDENCE COURSE

Dear Brother Lindsay:

Just a few words to tell you how deeply I appreciate being a part of your Winning the Nations Crusade.

I really have enjoyed every lesson so far and I know I shall realize a great deal from studying the Course. God surely is directing you because every time I receive the lessons I find so much help. The Lord blesses my soul so I just read and cry, (also praise God) as it is opened up to me. It makes the Scriptures so plain and the people in the Bible come so alive and real. To know the great men of God were human and with like passions as we are, gives me courage to pray and seek God in a more positive manner knowing and coming to the realization that God is a good God and that He hears and answers prayer today just the same as back those many years ago.

Mrs. EMM
Ashland, Ky.

THE HOLY LAND ALBUM

Dear Brother Lindsay:

I am writing you to let you know that I received your photograph album of the Holy Land and I think that it is wonderful. I have seen picture slides of the Holy Land before, but they were not to be compared with these pictures and I want to thank you for sending me this book.

Seth Hilborn
Drayton, Ont., Canada

FROM A BAPTIST MISSIONARY

Dear Brother Lindsay:

For a long time you have been sending to me your wonderful magazine THE VOICE OF HEALING and I wish to express my hearty thanks and gratitude for this token of Christian love and fellowship. I am a Baptist Missionary, but I enjoy very much your thrilling articles about God's power. I am glad God is using you in such a mighty way. I certainly appreciate your great work.

TESTIMONIES

RUPTURED DISC HEALED

Dear Brother Nunn:

For five years I had a ruptured disc in my spine causing me much misery. Because of this I had to wear a brace on my back all the time.

One Sunday afternoon Brother Nunn prayed for me, and when he prayed God immediately healed my back.

While Brother Nunn was praying it seemed as if a heating pad was laid to the lower part of my spine. When the heat began to leave, the natural-feeling returned to my back and all the soreness and misery was completely gone. Since that time I have not had to wear the brace and I have been doing my housework.

I thank and praise God for this, because I know that it was through and by Him that I was healed.

Mrs. Anna Dodson
Peolla Mills, Virginia

HAD DOUBLE VISION

Dear Brother Nunn:

Three years ago I suddenly began to see double, and since that time my eyes had been thus affected until November, 1954, when I came to Evangelist David Nunn and had him pray for me. Instantly God healed me, and now I see normally.

I thank God and give Him all the glory for what He has done for me through the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Norma Lee Miller
Elkton, Virginia

PAINS IN LEGS AND ARM RELIEVED

Dear Brother Nunn:

Thank you so much for the blest cloth. My daughter, eleven years old, was suffering from pains in her legs and arms. The day the blest cloth was used she woke up really in pain. I had to dress her. We knelt in prayer, putting the cloth on her in Jesus' name and then she went to school.

That night she came running up the hill, kicked her legs to her chin and lifted her hands up high. We praise God for His goodness for His mighty healing power. She hasn't had a sign of the pain since. Praise the Lord.

Mrs. Olive McGregor
Montrose, B. C. Canada

DELIVERED FROM PALSY

Dear Brother Nunn:

I had palsy in my right hand and a serious nervous condition in my body that the doctors said they could do nothing for.

Brother Nunn prayed for me and my hand and body was completely healed.

The Lord has done a wonderful work in my body and I praise Him for it.

Mrs. R. Dodson
Madison, Virginia

CROOKED FOOT HEALED

Dear Bro. Nunn:

I was in an airplane crash and as a result had a broken foot. The doctor did not put it back in place so it grew back crooked. I could not put my foot down flat on the ground, because it was crooked.

I came to your meeting under the big tent and God spoke to me to have you pray for me. I obeyed His Voice and had you pray. I was instantly and miraculously healed! Now my foot is straight.

Here is the Answer to Questions about the Future of Israel.

• Has God turned from the Jews forever? • By what one method is it possible to reach the Jew? • Will the Jews build a Temple in Jerusalem? • Will the Jews accept a false Messiah? • What is the Covenant of death that the Jews enter into? • Will a great revival come to Israel?

Question: Anti-Semites believe that the Jew has no further place in God's plan, and that there is no need to attempt to reach him with the Gospel.

Answer: This is certainly an error; nothing is more surely taught in prophecy than that at the close of this dispensation, God will turn back to the Jew. (Read Zech. 8:22-23) It is a matter of dispensation. True, the Jews who rejected Christ were given over to judgment, but as this age ends, God once more will be, and is, turning to His ancient people. The fact that the Jew has gone back to Palestine and established himself there, despite all predictions to the contrary, is proof that prophecy will be fulfilled. Notice the plain words of Paul who declares that the "natural branches" will be grafted again "into their own olive tree."

"For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. Behold therefore the goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in." (Romans 11:21-25)

Question: But do you think it is necessary to evangelize the Jew? Will not God convert him in His own good time?

Answer: Christ has given us a job to do. He told the apostles to go from city to city and preach saying, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the leper, raise the dead, cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give." (Matt. 10:7-8)

Lest someone say that this command was given only to the apostles, we point out Christ's words in Matthew 10:23.

"But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come."

The truth is inescapable that this obligation to evangelize the Jews refers also to the time just before the Coming of Christ. It means we shall have to work quickly in order to get the job done before the return of Christ. That is the reason that we have a team going from city to city in that land to bring the message of the Messiah to them.

Question: Has this Gospel team had success in going from village to village?

Answer: Yes, they have been successful in achieving the goals that had been laid out. We felt we should not use methods which in the past have proved unsuccessful. Only a little handful of Jews attend the several missions in Jerusalem. Jews generally do not respond to the Church message. Our team goes into the villages handing out Messianic booklets and Bibles. When they meet people who are sick, they ask permission to pray for them in the name of Jesus. In most cases, permission is given. Many healings have resulted, and from that have come professions of faith in Christ. A clear-cut miracle does more to reach a Jew than years of preaching.

Question: What then distinguishes your approach to the Jew?

Answer: It is the Messianic approach. We have given out tens of thousands of carefully prepared Messianic booklets. On the last page of the book, we invite the reader if he has become interested in learning more about the Messiah, to send for a New Testament Bible. Some 25,000 Jews have actually written to our headquarters for a Bible with the New Testament. This is far different than distributing Bibles at random, in which case they are usually not read. As a whole, the Jew is not open to the Church message, but his heart in many cases is open to the Messianic Message. The state of mind of many Jews in Israel now is this: "Could it be true that Jesus Christ, after all, is the real Messiah?"

Question: Do you think then that there will be a great revival that will spread over Israel in the near future?

Answer: Israel will at length accept Christ as the Messiah. They will first accept Him by ones and twos. Now is the time of seed sowing. The day will come when it will be said, "Shall a nation be born at once?" (Isa. 66:8) However, there is much preparation needed first. A large section of Israel is apostate, not believing anything. There are, however, a great number who are believers in the Old Testament. These will continue on in their orthodox worship. In fact, the Book of Revelation shows that just before the Great Tribulation, the Jews will build a temple in Jerusalem for the purpose of restoring their ancient worship.

WILL ISRAEL BUILD A TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM?

Question: Is it true then that the Jews will build such a temple in the city of Jerusalem before Jesus returns to earth?

Answer: Yes, Revelation 11, indicates that the Jews will build such a temple in that city. The actual date when this will occur is in the hands of God, although it will likely take place in the not far distant future.

"And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months." (Rev. 11:1-2)

Question: But many say that the Jewish temple cannot be built, until the Mosque of Omar comes down. And whoever should be responsible for tearing it down would incur the undying hatred of 40 million Arabs, who look upon the Mosque as a sacred shrine.

Answer: If God designs the Mosque to come down that prophecy be fulfilled, it would be a very simple thing with God. However, there is no necessity for this to take place. The above verse declares, "But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not: for it is given unto the Gentiles . . ." This Scripture tells us as plainly as can be, that the area outside the temple is given to the Gentiles. Since the "outer court" is not a part of the Jewish Temple, it must be the site of the Gentile Temple. In other words, the Jews are sharing Jerusalem with the Gentiles. That is true at the present moment. One half the city belongs to the Jews, the other half is in the hands of the Mohammedans. During the past 13 years, there has been a high wall and a no-man's land between the two sections.

Question: Why would God recognize a Jewish Temple built by Jews who have not accepted Christ as their Messiah?

Answer: It is a matter of dispensation. It is time for the budding of the fig tree, and for God's recognition of the Jew.
God tells John not to measure the court of the Gentiles. They are no longer in the reckoning with Israel. Their presence in Israel is considered out of place. Yet for a short time God will permit the Gentiles to profane the "court of the temple" as a means of chastening Israel. Notice, that Israel is being measured with a rod.

Apparently God does recognize the Jewish temple even though it is built by wilful men. Jesus called the temple that existed when He was on earth as "My Father's house". (Jn.

2:16) Yet that temple was built by the wicked Herod, who slaughtered the babies of Bethlehem, in his diabolical plan to murder Christ.

Question: Are we certain that this is the Tribulation Temple spoken of in Revelation 11? Some say that this was the old temple at Jerusalem. Still others say it is the Millennial Temple.

Answer: The old temple was destroyed in A. D. 70, with scarcely a stone left standing. This was a quarter of a century before the Book of Revelation was written. Prophecy does not refer to something that has happened in the past. As to the Millennial temple, that will be built by Christ only after He returns. (Zech. 6:12-13)

There is no temple during this dispensation, for the Church is the temple of God. (Ephes. 2:20-22) By the process of elimination, we know that this temple is the Tribulation Temple.

That Jerusalem is called "the holy city" in Revelation 11:2, clearly shows a dispensational change. God is turning from the Gentiles to the Jew again.

Question: What then will be the course of events in Israel?

Answer: We must put forth every effort to sow the seed and reach those whose hearts are open to the Messiah. We must remember that the rise of the Antichrist is not far off.
Events in Europe, the rapid spread of Communism, all point to the fact that there is little time left before Satan's man will appear on the horizon as the world's champion.

Question: What effect will the rise of the Antichrist have upon Israel?

Answer: There is not space here to discuss this subject thoroughly. The Beast will come to power and have ten kingdoms under him as Daniel 7, shows quite clearly. He will appear as a patron to the Jews. Jesus said, "I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: If another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." (Jn. 5:43) When the Antichrist appears and pretends to be friendly to the interests of Israel, apostate Jews will welcome him. Daniel 9:26, declares that this "prince that shall come" will make a 7-year covenant with the Jews, which will, so they suppose, enable them to achieve their national aspirations. This covenant presumably will permit them to build their temple, if it has not already been built. Isaiah calls this covenant "a covenant of death". (Isa. 28:15-18) For, after three and a half years (in the middle of Daniel's week of seven years) this prince shall break the covenant. Then will follow a terrible period of persecution, and the great Tribulation. (Matt. 24:15-22, Dan. 9:27)

Question: What will happen when the Antichrist breaks his covenant?

Answer: Daniel 9:27, declares that he will commit the "abomination of desolation", which from the context appears to have a direct effect on the Jew's temple worship which has been instituted. There is good reason to believe that this event is associated with Paul's statement in II Thes. 2:3-4.

"Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first,
and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

The Voice of Healing Conventions In Norway Witness Great Response

It was the great joy of THE VOICE OF HEALING party to minister in conventions in Norway. Both auditoriums in Trondheim and Oslo were packed to the utmost capacity as the photographs above show. Many hundreds of people responded to the various altar calls, and the healing services were an outstanding feature of the conventions.

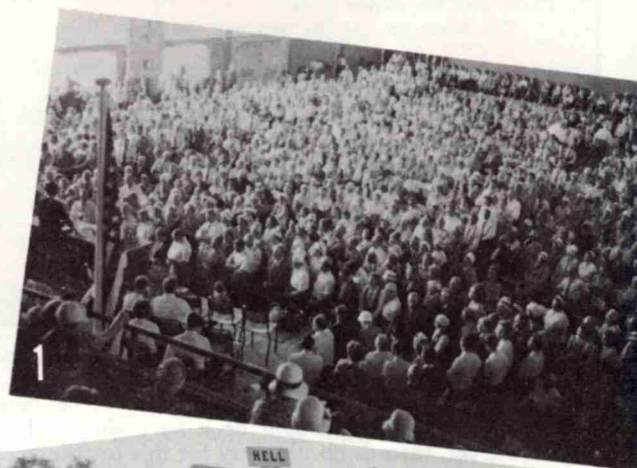

We greatly appreciated the wonderful courtesy of the people in Norway. We especially enjoyed the fellowship of the fine ministers of that country. In Oslo and Trondheim we had meetings specially called for pastors and evangelists and their wives. In both cities a fine group attended. (See photos) These ministers have extended us an invitation to return to Norway for another series of conventions.

Norway is the beautiful land of the midnight sun. Even in Trondheim just south of the Arctic Circle, it is light all through the night in the summer. Some of the party went to Hammerfest which is at latitude over 70 degrees north, and is the most northern city of the world, and held a deliverance meeting there. In this city only a little over 1100 miles from the North Pole, the gospel of deliverance was preached and eagerly received by the people.

There are many things that should be told about these campaigns if we had the space. The photographs tell some of the story.

The TVH party included R. W. Culpepper, David Nunn, Richard Vinyard, and Gordon Lindsay. There are many in these cities that we should thank for their help and courtesy. We must mention Brother Galbrand, our host in Trondheim, E. Howard Anderson, and Brother Gabrielsen, who went with us to Hammerfest. Brother Augie Samuelsen and Petter Gylver are to be especially thanked for their preparations and work in Oslo.

SOME 79,000 ATTENDED THE DAVID NUNN

EVANGELIST DAVID NUNN IN PUERTO RICO

By Rev. J. F. Rodriguez, Supt. of Defenders of the Christian Faith Movement, and President of Defenders Theological Seminary, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico.

Puerto Rico was a Macedonian call in the mind of Evangelist David Nunn. He shared his desire with Editor Gordon Lindsay, who came to Puerto Rico with a view to contact brethren and organize a committee for Brother Nunn's meetings.

The meeting began at Ponce, May 8, 1961. The La Concha Theater proved inadequate for the large crowd, so services were moved to the C. H. Terry Baseball Park where the Ponce operation was completed May 14.

During the week 29,700 persons attended the meetings and were blessed with the Gospel. The outcome of the Ponce meeting had greatly encouraged San Juan leaders. There was great expectation. So, a crowd gathered Monday evening, May 15, to hear the evangelist.

The largest attendance was reached on the closing night, Saturday, May 27, when some 10,000 came to Munoz Rivera Park.

The meeting's record shows that 49,300 persons attended the Altar call in Ponce meeting.

San Juan meetings, and 29,700 in Ponce — a total of 79,000. In Ponce there were 2,400 decisions for Christ, and 1,130 in San Juan. In both cities 160 believers claimed Holy Spirit baptism.

Here are some other results: Maria Isabel Torrales was a demon possessed young girl. When brought to the meetings she could not behave. People were aware of the interruptions. The demons feared deliverance, but she was delivered in answer to prayer! Saturday night, May 27, Maria Isabel Torrales came to the platform. She was sweetly smiling. Before she began her testimony the audience knew she had been graciously delivered. It was evident in her sweetness and happy smile. The crowd was exultant.

In both cities there were something like 62 deafs healed, 2 blind, 8 paralytics, 25 hernias, 4 epileptics, 3 T. B.'s, 2 crossed eyes, 4 tumors, and one leg lengthened.

Ismael Santiago was not born blind. He had seen God's creation, but the night of blindness came upon him, and brought sadness to his home. His wife took him every night to the services. The Holy Spirit was creating faith in his heart through the healing messages. And Saturday evening, both he and his wife came to the platform. He sees! Praise God!

Another result of the meetings was the inception of a statewide ministerial association to promote the advance of the Christian church.

These days of fellowship—days of Heaven upon Ponce and San Juan—demonstrated the importance of working together for God and man, united in the binding love of Christ.

We are grateful to Evangelist Nunn and his associates. His visit has been the best treat to Puerto Rico during this year 1961.

DAVID NUNN IN PONCE

By Rev. Miquel Navas, Minister Church of God Mission Board, Ponce

From May 8-14, 1961, the renowned evangelist David Nunn held a glorious salvation healing campaign here in Ponce. With him came his associate evangelist, Rev. Leon Morrow who conducted special prayer services for the baptism in the Holy Ghost. About 100 persons were baptized in the Spirit during the five days in these spiritual services.

Meanwhile, the Nunn campaign was increasing in La Concha Acustica, which accommodates four thousand people, so that it had to be moved to a larger place. The healing campaign was moved to the Charles H. Terry Park, place of great campaigns of notable evangelists.

Blinds, deafs, paralytics that were healed testified to the great ings the Lord had done for them. A young woman, deaf in both ears, experienced a slight nervous shock when she felt both ears instantly opened after prayer.

A man who was a barber at Victory Street in Ponce, had a leg shorter than the other. After Brother Nunn prayed he noticed that both feet were equal length.

The minister of the Church of God in Sabana Grande, P. R., brought a blind woman who received her sight instantly. Other ministers who brought sick folk to the campaign rejoiced to see these gloriously healed.

Another woman who had been deaf twenty years was praising God for her healing.

Men, women and children from near towns went home without testifying because of lack of time, but we know about their healing by the power of God.

An atmosphere saturated with the power of God was left when the campaign was over, and the people continue to be saved and healed, and believers continue to receive the glorious baptism of the Holy Ghost.

THE CONVERSION OF JACK ROBINS THE MODERN SAUL OF TARUS

By THOMAS NICKEL

Rabbi Jack Robins sits at his unique presentation of the Paschal Lamb.

(Editor's note: Recently Jack Robins was in Dallas, Texas, speaking to the new group of the FGBMFI. His message was received with great interest and enthusiasm. Rabbi Robins' conversion is one of the Twentieth Century miracles, and is another sign of God's move which is gathering momentum among the Jews.)

For seventeen generations, the family of Jacob Rabinowitz were Jewish Rabbis, handing down Rabbinical duties from father to son. Into this lineage, on the Russian-Polish border, Jacob was born in 1902, only 124 feet from the synagogue's pulpit. His grandfather, Rabbi Moshe Judah Rabinowitz, was the spiritual leader of almost one million Jews, and from the time little Jacob was about six years of age, the grandfather and father began preparing him for the work of the synagogue which he would one day assume. Instead of play, his life was filled from six in the morning until late at night in prayer and study.

At the age of seventeen, Jacob and his family came to America, where Jacob continued his prayers and studies until 1924, when he became a teacher in the Great Chedar Seminary in New York City. Later he was an assistant to his father, Rabbi Abraham Ezekiel Rabinowitz, in Cincinnati, Ohio, after which Jacob became his assistant Rabbi in Houston, Texas.

Then came the momentous year 1948 in the plan of God and the annals of man, when at the midnight hour on May 18, Israel became a nation as a fulfillment of the Balfour Declaration of November 2, 1917, and of God's promise through the prophet Isaiah to return the Jews to their homeland. This same year, Rabbi Jacob Rabinowitz had a Damascus Road Experience with the Lord Jesus Christ. He went to Corsicana, Texas, to exchange pulpits with the Rabbi there so that the latter could be with his son who was to be operated on in the Memorial Hospital in Houston. It was the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, the most solemn day in Jewish life, when the High Priest enters the Holy of Holies for the forgiveness of his people and learns whether he is to live or die.

Dressed in his white Priestly robe and high hat, driving down the streets of Corsicana, Texas, in an open Continental convertible, Rabbi Jacob Rabinowitz heard the strains of "The Old Rugged Cross" coming from the First Assembly of God Church. The Holy Spirit compelled him to park his car and slip into the church to see the tall, unknown Texas preacher sing the song and accompany himself on the guitar.

Suddenly, the preacher stopped the song and began preaching on "Saul of Tarsus." During the message on Saul's conversion, when he became the Apostle Paul, Rabbi Jacob Rabinowitz had his Damascus Road Experience with Jesus Christ and became the apostle Jack Robins.

As a result of his experience, Jack

Robins lost his wife and children, many funerals were held for him, and he became as a dead man to his relatives and his friends.

With his lifetime of prayer and study and experience as a rich storehouse of spiritual values, he became teacher of the men's Sunday School Class in the First Methodist Church in Houston, Texas, which the 8,000 members claim is the largest Methodist church in the world. Jack's outstanding Sunday School Class, composed of many prominent business men, wealthy financiers, and educated scholars, have had him as their teacher for twelve years and he is the only man in the more than sixty years the class has been conducted that has been twice elected president of the class.

A. C. SoRelle, Jr., Director of Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International, arranged for Jack Robins to attend the FGBMFI Convention in Tulsa, Oklahoma. In like manner as Saul on his way to Damascus to persecute the Christians, Jack Robins went to Tulsa to see what he didn't like about the Full Gospel Business Men. But God so showered Jack Robins with the love and hugs and kisses of these great business men, doing the business of Jesus Christ, whose hands were lifted high in prayer and praise to God, that the Jack Robins that came to the Convention died and a new Jack Robins went home to Houston, after stirring the Convention on its last morning with his testimony.

He returned to his Sunday School Class, and because a new Jack Robins had come back from the Convention and because there were so many visitors in addition to the class members, the class president gave a glowing tribute and introduction of their teacher. Jack held his audience spellbound by the testimony of his transformation at the Convention and by his message on, "What Is Pentecost?"

On Tuesday evening July 12, A. C. SoRelle, Jr., invited Jack Robins to speak at the First Assembly of God Church in Pasadena, Texas, where Evangelist John McDuff was holding a revival. The Pastor, J. R. Goodwin, called on Jack Robins to speak first, and he told of the praying hands of everyone at the FGBMFI Tulsa Convention, and of how he was a new Jack Robins since the Convention.

Then Evangelist McDuff preached a stirring message from the Second Chapter of Acts, how the 120 were gathered in the upper room, how they were filled with the Holy Ghost, and how those from various countries all were amazed to hear these Jews speaking their own language.

Here is Jack Robins' testimony of what happened at that instant:

"Suddenly, the supernatural power of God came into the midst of the people — it was a tense, glorious, wondrous moment. The people shouted, and prayed, and cried, and everyone felt the presence of the Lord, except the 'Doubting Thomas', Jack Robins.

"Evangelist McDuff then announced to the assembly that the organist had dreamed a dream the previous night and that Jack Robins, the Jewish Rabbi who had accepted Christ as his Saviour, would experience the most miraculous moment of his life in front of hundreds of people in the First Assembly of God Church in Pasadena, Texas, where the organist was playing the organ. Evangelist McDuff asked me to come forward, to kneel and to pray for the great miracle to happen, and for all those who had received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit to come and lay hands on me and to pray for God to speak to me.

"Mrs. Goodwin, the Pastor's wife, noticed that I was skeptical and did not understand what God was trying to do, so she prayed that God would send a message in a language that I would understand, so that I would know that it was the word of the Lord.

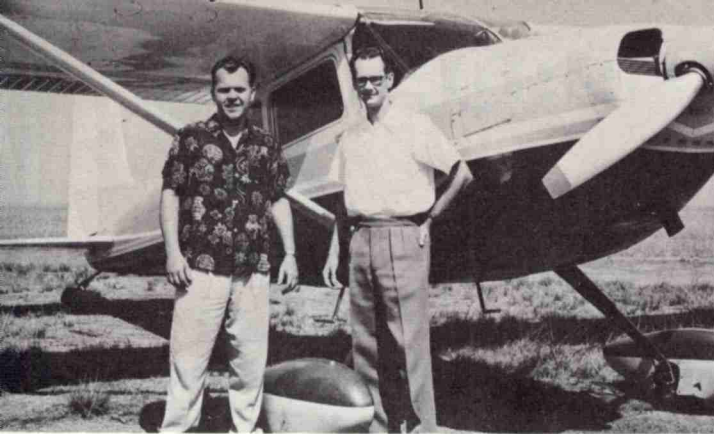

"Suddenly, a great big Irishman behind me began speaking the most beautiful Hebrew I have ever heard. Can you imagine an Irishman speaking Hebrew beautifully? Here is what the Hebrew message said, translated into English: 'I have dreamed a dream that you will be a good man. I will break your old heart and will give you a new heart. Go in big, populated places and preach in the pulpits to whom He was not spoken of. They shall see and the ones that did not hear shall understand, because you, Jacob, the son of Rabbi Ezekiel, came in the fulness of the blessings of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.'

"I knelt there praying, shouting, crying, adoring Him, loving Him, and believing Him! I was out of this world. I was with my Lord. My life was changed completely from that moment. I passed through the clouds above the earth up into the bright, clear, clean, golden world of our Lord. I left that church a changed man. No longer would I work in the world of commerce.

"Frank Slack, my good friend and employer, who also attended the Tulsa Convention, was very upset when I told him I had to leave our five-million-dollar project to go out and preach to all the world.

Dropping the Word . . .

A report of Evangelist Harry Hampel's and Don Northrup's aerial literature distribution in South Africa

I had my first experience of dropping literature from the air in 1945 while serving in Marine Corps Aviation. The war was over, but many of the Japanese soldiers did not know it, so we would fly along the beach and drop out "surrendery" pamphlets. The Japanese soldiers who were holed up in caves would sneak out at night and come down to the beach to bathe and catch fish. There they would find the surrendery pamphlets telling them the war was over and as a result many surrendered and got to go home unharmed.

So it was with great joy Brother Donald Northrup and I took off in the Cessna 180 loaded with gospel literature to drop "surrendery" pamphlets of a different type. For they were surrendery pamphlets telling man the good news. The war is over. The prisons have been opened to all who are bound, and if man will only surrender his life unconditionally to God, there will be "peace which passes all understanding."

The little aircraft with its load of leaflets roared on through the blue, over the rivers and flat plains of South Africa. Our heading was north and soon a high wall of jagged mountains loomed up before us. This was our drop area. Beyond the mountains are hundreds of little villages and many never have a gospel service.

It is an amazing thing to see the reaction of the native as the aircraft zooms overhead with a terrific roar at 20 to 30 feet of altitude. His first reactions are either fear or self-preservation. Many run or fall flat to the ground. The more aggressive and war-like stand their ground and hurl stones at the aircraft.

When directly over the huts the literature is placed into a specially designed venture tube which forms a vacuum and the literature is sucked out, giving a very even distribution of leaflets.

Our plane worked in and out of canyons, zoomed over tree-tops, diving at one hut after the other, spilling out thousands of tracts and gospels. Then back to the auxiliary airstrip to take on more fuel and more literature.

As we travel over the villages this time the reaction of the villagers is one of complete change. Instead of fear, panic, and belligerence, it is one of joy, appreciation, and expectancy. Thirty feet below us we can see the natives smiling, leaping into the air with hands stretched out as though pleading for more of the gospels.

This part of Africa has a surprisingly high rate of literacy. In one area that was covered a native grade school was nearby and the young students scampered out to acquire their gospels that had fallen from heaven. When they returned to their class room, the teacher made them turn in their gospels and now once a day in that school they have a study hour when the gospels are taken out and read.

I was in China when it fell to the Communists. I watched Communism spread there like a social cancer. And it did not come so much through bombs, bullets, and bayonets, but largely through the printed page. For in China the missionaries taught the people how to read, but the Communists gave them what to read. Christianity must not let this happen in Africa.

Tidal Wave of Revival Sweeps Coronationville, South Africa

by Don Northrup

The people stood in wide-eyed amazement as they watched the largest tent in Africa being erected in the Charles Phillips Park. The massive World mission, represents more canvas than was used on the sails of the Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria in the voyage of the New World. Small wonder that the nationals were amazed as they saw this canvas giant flapping gently in the afternoon breeze.

But if they were amazed at seeing the tent, they were doubly amazed at what they saw under the tent. For night after night God performed signs, wonders, and miracles that shook the community and brought the greatest move of God ever to come to that area.

On the opening night Evangelist Hampel called seven deaf people forward to demonstrate God's miracle-working power. The Lord healed all seven instantly. The audience was electrified. After that it was easy to believe God for the miraculous.

Every night God confirmed His word with signs following; scores of deaf people were healed. We saw blind eyes open, cripples throw down their crutches and walk away unassisted; others came out of their wheel chairs. The crowd would go wild with enthusiasm as a visible miracle would occur.

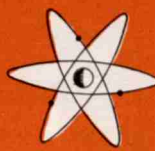

One night a young man who had not walked in eight long years rose to his feet and walked home. He was back to the services and gave his testimony on several occasions.

The greatest problem was a lack of personal workers to deal with converts at the altar calls, for the combined congregation of the co-operating churches did not represent over 200 and there were thousands in attendance. During the crusade over 5,000 adults (we did not count the children) answered the altar call for salvation.

The revival ended in a wave of God's glory and during the final service an invalid woman suddenly leaped out of her wheel chair and walked about the tent, hands raised, glorifying God. She was last seen pushing her wheel chair down the street on her way home, followed by a great host of people all praising and magnifying the name of Jesus.

THE MARCH OF PROPHECY

(A FEATURE TO KEEP READERS INFORMED OF WORLD EVENTS WHICH HAVE UNUSUAL PROPHETIC SIGNIFICANCE.)

THE CUBAN FIASCO

The Cuban disaster is a good illustration of Daniel 4:17.

"This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men."

Here we are told that God in sending forth his judgments, permits for purposes of His own, base men to rule. Notice how this is fulfilled in Castro's recent victory.

1. The American people are fairly well united in recognizing Castro as a menace. He has turned Cuba into a Communist state, and has ruthlessly slaughtered all who are opposed to him.

2. Nearly all the Latin-American republics are against the Cuban dictator.

3. President Kennedy desires above all things to make a good showing. The humiliation he has suffered in the Cuban fiasco is the last thing in the world he would have desired.

4. The CIA advised the Cuban adventure.

5. So did the chiefs of staff.

6. So did practically all his advisers.

Yet a school boy would have known that 1,000 Cuban refugees could not invade Cuba without air cover, and win against Castro's 100,000 soldiers. Common sense and all history is against such a venture.

The whole thing is fantastic. It merely shows that when God permits a base man (Castro) to rule, the counsel of the wise is turned into foolishness. President Kennedy and his counsellors are wondering how they ever came to make such a decision.

HITLER'S CRIME IS NOT THE WORST

The Saturday Evening Post lays bare the terrible story of mass murder in United States that rivals even that of Hitler and Eichmann. This is murder by abortion.

Hitler and Eichmann murdered millions of Jews, whom their warped mind considered to be enemies. Eichmann is given a chance to defend himself in Jerusalem. But what defense can a mother give for the murder of her unborn offspring?

Informed estimates place the number of abortions per year from 750,000 to 2,000,000. Since the number of births in America are a little over 4,000,000 annually that means for every three persons living there is a murdered unborn infant resting in a nameless grave.

According to the Post report one half the patients operated on, are married women, and not the friendless unmarried girl who finds herself in her hapless predicament, as is popularly supposed. Only about one-third of the patients are single.

Abortion is murder and can only bring terrible regrets to those who commit it. Moreover, the suffering that many go through as a result of these illegal operations which are performed by reckless and irresponsible quacks, is beyond description. Surgical instruments are often unsterilized, lethal doses of anesthetics may be administered. This shabby business is practiced by fly-by-night operators who live outside the law. Some 5,000 women die a year as a result of abortions, and thousands of others have to endure intense pain the rest of their lives. And what about judgment on a land whose women will indulge in such criminality against their own flesh and blood?

THE HORRORS OF THE EICHMANN TRIAL

NEWSWEEK carries this paragraph about the evidence presented in the Eichmann trial:

"There, a prisoner band greeted them with Viennese waltzes and American jazz, and the sign over the huge iron gate promised: 'Arbeit macht frei' (work makes you free). Those who were still strong enough to contribute a few months of effort to Auschwitz war material factories were, indeed, picked out to work. The rest were ordered to undress and enter the chambers for 'delousing.' Once the doors had been shut and sealed, the spigots spewed out their Zyklon B gas. It was only then that the victims realized what was happening, and attempted a rush for the door, screaming. Through peepholes, SS men watched for the last spasm, then pumped in fresh air. The cleaning up was done by other condemned Jewish inmates, who knocked out gold teeth and clipped off hair before carting the bodies to the furnaces. The teeth melted down went to Swiss banks, the hair was used for army mattresses. In six unburned sheds at Auschwitz says Israel's charge No. 7 against Eichmann, investigators found '348,820 men's suits, and 836,255 women's dresses'."

THE OMINOUS BERLIN ULTIMATUM

The Berlin situation has become ominous. President Kennedy in confronting Khrushchev at Vienna, insisted that there was no room for compromise in commitments made for the defense of Berlin. Now the Soviet Premier has issued a six-month ultimatum. Khrushchev demands an immediate peace treaty with Germany on Communist terms. Failing this, Russia would sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany. He has given a six-month deadline for this to be done.

Once East Germany has a peace treaty, they are free to cut off the supply corridors to West Berlin. If the West attempts to force a passage, Khrushchev declares that "it will mean war—and a nuclear war at that."

Senator Mansfield suggests that Berlin be made a free city. But everyone knows that this will merely mean a Communist Berlin. Why is Khrushchev so insistent? Because every time he brags up Communism as the wave of the future, the West need only point to the 4 million East Germans who have fled to the West, thus mocking the words of Khrushchev.

There is little chance that the Communists will let go of East Germany. Gomer is to be with Rosh at the time of the great Communist invasion of the Bible lands. (Ezek. 38) West Germany no doubt will remain with the allied nations, to be drawn into the ten nations of the Antichrist. West Germany was the heart of the Old Holy Roman Empire, it will be remembered.

WILL THE JEWS BUILD A TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM?

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

Question: What will happen when this terrible event takes place?

Answer: Jesus warns the Jews to flee to the mountains.

"When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains." (Matt. 24:15-16)

In order for the Jews to reach the mountains, they will have to flee through the Jordan plain. This means that the Antichrist in some way has reached a settlement with the Jews and the Arabs. For the Jews would not be able to flee to the mountains to the east unless the roads were open. (At the present time not a single Jew is permitted to enter Jordan.)

Question: What then is our duty to Israel at the present time?

Answer: It is our duty to evangelize Israel as rapidly as possible. It must be through the Messianic approach however. Remember, thousands of Jews are giving heed to the Messianic message, even though many have not yet come out and made a public stand for Christ. There are serious difficulties that confront the believing Jew. Foremost of these is that when he makes a public confession of Christ, he is apt to be dismissed from his job. There have been various proposals to build a Christian city,

INDIA—Land of Millions of Heartaches

MR. NEHRU and the Indian Government have just announced the latest census completed in 1961 that the population had now reached 438 million.

This land with its unusual culture and tradition dates back more than four thousand years. The wide streets and beautiful buildings of New Delhi, the capital, form a great contrast to the thousands of small villages that make up the main populace of India. On the streets you see the ancient and the modern side by side. A crude and primitive cart pulled by a water buffalo, the clumsy little donkey, the overworked horse, an occasional bony camel, these are not the only beasts of burden. The greatest burden is borne by those who are steeped in darkness without the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only name under heaven whereby we must be saved. In oriental fashion, a pedestrian carries his load on his head. There are many bicycles and a few automobiles that are mostly owned by the government, and an endless stream of humanity whose days are filled with burdens, cares and anxiety.

India is a land of millions of heartaches. Its grotesque customs and manners are unequalled and unparalleled by any other land upon the face of the earth. It worships more than three hundred and thirty million gods. And yet, not one of its many gods is able to alleviate the suffering, pain and travail of one of its worshippers.

Multitudes of India's vast population have no home. They sleep in the streets. Home is wherever they happen to be. All the possessions in the world that they own they carry in their hands.

In Calcutta, I saw pitiful, destitute little children who were outcasts without parents, playing in the sewer and in the water pumped from the Ganges. They are cared for only by those who pass by. No wonder they have sore eyes, and blindness plagues the land, surrounded by rubbish, filth, scavenger birds and a smell that is inconceivably nauseating. Sanitation is a word that is unknown to the great masses in this land of darkness.

Superstition and illiteracy plague India. Mr. Nehru described it as "a sluggish stream living in the past moving slowly through the accumulation of dead centuries". The people of India, especially in the summer time, must endure extreme heat. This is especially true in the southern part. Mr. Rudyard Kipling wrote about India in the summer time. He said, "There is neither sky, sun nor horizon; nothing but a brown purple haze of heat. It is as though the earth were dying of apoplexy." At this very minute there are millions of suffering people in India who never know what it is to go to sleep without being hungry. The greatest tragedy of this is that to most Christians, these are just cold figures and statistics. To me every one of these represent a precious, never-dying soul that Jesus gave His life to save.

The disgusting dunghill of the sacred cow is a common sight in India. Out of dung they make patties with their hands. They use these as fuel with which to cook. The repulsive and loathsome habit of mixing cow dung with dust over which the cobra has crawled, and water from the Ganges to make pills for the relief of their aches and pains is another weird belief of this sad and pagan land. It is not uncommon to see them rub cow dung from the sacred cow in their hair, eyes, nose and on their body. They would not dare kill the flies, lice and vermin that are attracted by such unsavory practices lest they should slaughter one of their ancestors who they believe has returned in such a form. You see, they believe in reincarnation and transmigration of the soul. With their hands in the dung from the sacred cow they try to work out their salvation.

David Nunn, Gordon Lindsay, and I have dedicated ourselves to doing all that we can to get the Gospel to these needy souls before it is everlastingly too late. Won't you join us in praying that these lost millions may hear the gospel, the only answer to their cry and the travail of their soul? Next month on these pages, I will tell you more about India, but won't you now while God is touching your heart, pray for these people that are so desperate and so needy. In our campaigns in India we were able to reach multiplied thousands. Yet this is only a tiny fraction of those who are dying without Christ in a land of religious night.

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT PEOPLE WALKING THROUGH FIRE?

The question was asked me by a Hindu businessman who came to my room at the hotel. At the end of the interview we prayed together, and he said that he believed in Jesus, and that God had forgiven his sins. He came to our meetings and really rejoiced.

We saw a great number of Hindus walking on live coals where they had burned seven tons of wood. The coals were about eight inches deep, ten feet wide and several yards long. Their feet were bare!

We saw them walk on sharp knives and long spikes with their bare feet. They put hooks in their bare backs and pulled carts with them. They put spikes through their lips, eyelids, face and tongues. They did all this trying to atone for their sins, and to show people that their gods performed miracles.

Fire walking is a heathen custom thousands of years old. The people abstain from eating for about forty days, and go through many sacrifices preparing for this until they come under the influence of evil spirits. The Lord is against it. He commands that people not yield to this possession. (II Kings 23:10, 16:3, 17:31) The Children of Israel followed this practice which displeased the Lord. (II Kings 21:6) They also worshipped strange gods as these fire walkers did which we saw. (II Chr. 33:6)

God can give us power over fire. He can do as much as the devil. He has more power than the devil. He did not let the fire burn the three Hebrew Children when they were thrown into the furnace. The Lord went through there with them. He took the "burn" out of the fire. But they did not walk through fire on purpose. We are not supposed to tempt the Lord. We do not let a snake bite us on purpose to show God's power. We do not get possessed with the devil, get sick, or drink deadly poison or jump off a cliff to prove God. To do so is to tempt God.

God has promised that if we walk through the fire we shall not be burned. (Isa. 43:2) That is a wonderful consolation. People who have been burned at the stake have testified that the pain left, and they died without suffering.

God is still sovereign. If He so chooses He can let us accept the challenge when the ungodly heathen tell us we cannot walk through fire without first bowing to their ugly gods. In fact, the power of God came upon one of our own Holy Ghost preachers, and the Hindus were surprised when he walked through the live coals with his bare feet, not once, but several times. His feet were not even scorched!

I am not interested in miracles just to prove God has power. Any fool knows He has power. The devil knows that. A mother does not give her baby bread just to prove that she has power to do so. Healing is the Children's bread. (Matt. 15:26) If we ask for bread He will not give us a stone. (Luke 11:11)

Thousands of Hindus came to our meetings. When they saw God open blind eyes, unstop deaf ears and make the cripple to walk, they said, "What is this?" This is what we want. Our gods don't do anything like that. Thousands of them almost ran over each other coming to accept Jesus. Their souls are crying out for the supernatural. Modern churches have nothing to offer them.

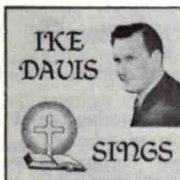

Just like the man who interviewed me; just like the thousands who attended our meetings, there are multiplied millions of others who are in darkness. We can carry them the light. They will walk in that light if we will let them see that Jesus is living, that He cares, that He is merciful.

THE CONVERSION OF JACK ROBINS

I want to share with others what the Full Gospel means. I want to tell of the praying hands at the FGBMFI Tulsa Convention which opened the door for me to the voice of my Lord at the First Assembly of God Church in Pasadena, Texas.
I want to follow Jesus Christ and lead others to follow in His way."

On Friday evening, July 29, in a little country Full Gospel Church, God baptized Jack Robins with the Holy Ghost and Fire.

This is another Chapter to the Book of Acts. The Book of Acts is closing and the Book of Revelation is opening. In God's great wisdom, He has raised up this modern Saul of Tarsus to fill in this transition with mighty achievements in the name of Jesus Christ. God has prepared Jack Robins; God has anointed Jack Robins; Jack Robins' future is in the hands of a great and good God!

WILL THE JEWS BUILD A TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM?

where Christian Jews could live. We do not know the full answer to all these things, but one thing we do know, we must move as rapidly as possible to get the message to the people of the cities of Israel. In that way the seed will be sown, so that when the Antichrist rises, the people will be forewarned, and they will know to flee and escape from him in time.

Question: Is it true that Jerusalem will then become the religious center of the world?

Answer: Zechariah 8:22-23, gives the answer to that question.

Question: Has God given a special promise to those who pray and give to the work of Israel?

Answer: Yes, indeed. The promise is in Psalms 122:6. "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee."
